

True-life movie showing in church

No Longer Alone, winner of three prestigious film-industry awards, will be shown on Sunday, Dec. 7, at The Alliance Church, First Street and Elizabeth Street, Midland. The showing, open to the public free of charge, is scheduled to begin at 7 p.m.

The film, a true story, takes a close look at a woman who was searching desperately for love and acceptance, but whose cries went unheard by those who surrounded her.

Originally released by World Wide Pictures in commercial theatres, the film is now one hour in length in preparation for its eventual presentation as a television special.

No Longer Alone traces the life of an English actress, Joan Winmill Brown. Though she skyrocketed to fame on the British stage, her life was marked by a frantic grasp for personal fulfillment and love. Tormented by a past she was unable to forget, she succumbed to a series of nervous breakdowns, and, at one point, attempted to take her own life.

In her ultimate moment of despair,

Joan was invited by a "chance" phone call to attend a Billy Graham crusade. It was there that she first discovered her worth as an individual and began her long struggle to piece her shattered life back together.

Those who have followed Billy Graham's ministry will be interested to know that Dr. Graham appears in the film in some of the footage of his 1954 London Crusade, and also in the introduction and conclusion to the film, photographed recently for this special version.

According to William F. Brown, President of World Wide Pictures, No Longer Alone was presented with the "Award of Excellence" from the Film Advisory Board of Hollywood, as well as the "Angel" award from Religion in Media in America, as the outstanding religion film of the year. It also received the "Silver Halo Award" from the Southern California Motion Picture Council.

No Longer Alone was filmed in colour on location in London, England, and stars Belinda Carroll, Wilfrid

Hyde White, James Fox, Samantha Gates, and Gordon DeVol. Simon Williams, who had one of the leading roles in the BBC production, Upstairs, Downstairs, also stars in the film. The title song was performed by the popular recording artist, B. J. Thomas.

New noise bylaw for Port

The recently elected Port McNicoll council certainly likes to get things started.

They held their inaugural meeting Monday night and the very next night, they held their first regular meeting.

In that meeting, council passed a bylaw to control noise in the confines of that municipality.

It is hoped that this bylaw will eliminate some of the noises that have been apparent in Port McNicoll such as squealing tires, stereos turned up too loud and mufflers that are too loud.

Other business at the first meeting of the new council saw councillor Chris Merritt appointed to the hospital board and councillor Ross Cameron appointed to the Tiny Tay Peninsula Planning Board.

The new council also approved a $50 donation to Sick Children's Hospital in Toronto and a $200 donation to Midland Minor Hockey.
