With Christmas fast approaching, activities in honor of the "festive season" spring up all over.

Thanks to a combined effort by the Canadian Crafts Gift Shop and Midland resident Joy Parker, Wyebridge can lay claim to having one of the most unique "festive season" activities to come along in a number of years.

From Dec. 16-21, inclusive, Joy will be exhibiting her collection of antique, contemporary and foreign dolls to the general public.

The exhibit will mark the first time ever that these dolls have been "out of the closet" so to speak. Joy's collection includes dolls from the late 1800s from such far away places as Japan, China, Russia and even Siam.

Joy and husband Wayne are probably best known for their miniature doll creations. These dolls are of an international flavour and it is believed that Joy and Wayne Parker are the world's largest manufacturers of miniature dolls.

Explains Joy, "This collection has never been seen by the public before and we felt it a shame not to share it. The Children especially will enjoy the collection."

Of the hundreds of dolls to be displayed, some of the more notable include an original Eaton's Beauty with ribbon and a thirty inch Canadian Beauty also complete with ribbon. Due to the nature of the exhibit children are asked to bring an adult. Exhibit times are Dec. 16-21, 2-4 p.m. and 6-8 p.m. See you, there!

A new session of arts and crafts has begun and will continue through the winter months under the watchful eye of instructor Bill Macmaster. Arts and crafts are held at the Wyebridge Community Centre every Monday evening 7-8 p.m.

Last Wednesday, Dec. 3, the Wyebridge Womens Institute held their annual Christmas Party at the Highland Restaurant.

With 24 in attendance, the women enjoyed dinner followed by games and contests. It was the consensus that the social committee did an excellent job in arranging the evening.

The First Wyebridge Cubs and Beavers enjoyed a combined meeting last Thursday and spent the evening learning and making crafts.

Lately, Midland Centennials have been playing very good hockey and they definitely look like a contender.

Kids, Odeon combine forces for Sally Ann

For a quarter century Odeon Theatre in Midland has been holding an annual Tin Can Show in which youngsters who bring along a can of food-stuff are allowed in free.

Officials at the King Street show say Saturday's event, with can goods being turned over to the Salvation Army, was one of the best attended events to date.

It has been estimated 800 cans of goodies were turned over to the Sally Ann thanks to about 700 youngsters who showed up for the free movies.

The staff at the Odeon came in for praise for their volunteer work during the morning.

The food now will find its way into Christmas Cheer boxes the Midland Salvation Army will distribute later this month in time for the Christmas holiday.
