

Obituary

Lionel Quesnelle dies in Sunnybrook

Lionel Quesnelle formerly of Cook's Lake Tiny Township, passed away at age 57 on Dec. 2, 1980 at Sunnybrook Hospital, Toronto following a brief illness.

Mr. Quesnelle was born in Tiny Township and lived most of his life in the Penetanguishene area.

On July 31, 1948, he married Anna Kerik in Belleville, Ont. He was a member of the Champlain Senior Citizen Club.

Mr. Quesnelle was predeceased by his parents, Andrew Quesnelle and Sarah Belcourt and by brothers, Alcime, Omer and Martial.

He is survived by his wife Mrs. Anna Quesnelle of Cook's Lake. By sons Donald of Willowdale, Blair of Collingwood and by daughters Judith Thompson of Mississauga and Catherine and Marie of Cook's Lake.

He is also survived by three brothers, Gerard Quesnelle of Tucson Arizona, Allen

Quesnelle of Kettleby and Ernest Quesnelle of Penetanguishene. There are two surviving sisters: Clothilde (Mrs. Remi Blondin) of Sudbury and Elzine (Mrs. Art Robitaille) of Aurora Ohio. There are four surviving grandchildren.

Funeral Mass was held Dec. 6, 1980 at St. Ann's Memorial Church under supervision of Father Louis Dignard.

Pallbearers were David Quesnelle,

Richard Quesnelle, Ed Quesnelle and Peter Quesnelle.

Burial is to take place in the spring at St. Ann's Cemetery.

Obituary

Velma Irene Cameron passed away suddenly at her home in Elmvale on Monday, Dec. 8 in her 72nd year.

Born in Medonte Township to R.J. and Sophia Reynolds June 19, 1908, she resided most of her life in Flos Township and the village of Elmvale. She was a member of the Anglican Church and was predeceased by her husband Jack Cameron in January of 1971.

Funeral services for Mrs. Cameron were held Dec. 8 at James H. Lynn Funeral Home in Elmvale with Rev. Finney presiding. Interment was at St. John's Anglican Cemetery in Waverley.

Mourning her passing are her daughter Eileen (Mrs. Armon Tripp), her sister Mae (Mrs. Earl Broan of Midland), her sister Edna (Mrs. Orville Snider) of Midland and her brother George Reynolds of Novar.

Relatives and friends came from as far away

Obituary

Mrs. D. Gendron dies in 77th year

On Dec. 6, 1980, Mrs. Delia Gendron, formerly of Bendale Acres Nursing Home, Scarborough, Ont., passed away at Scarborough General Hospital, Scarborough, Ont. in her 77th year, after a lengthy illness.

Mrs. Gendron, formerly Delia McBrien was born in Victoria Harbour to James McBrien and Mary Fortier, both of whom predeceased her.

Mrs. Gendron lived the last five years in Toronto, but she had spent most of her life in Penetanguishene where she worked for 35 years at Penetanguishene Mental Health Centre as as Hamilton, Whitby, Novar, Scarboro, Oak Ridges, King City and Barrie for the services.

Obituary

Velma Irene Cameron

a registered nurse. She was the widow of the late Theophilus Gendron.

Mrs. Gendron is survived by a brother

Ed McBrien of Midland, Ont.

Funeral services were held Dec. 8, 1980 at St. Ann's Memorial Church and were officiated by Flowers arrived from Branch No. 262 Royal Canadian Legion in Elmvale, Van Black Women's Institute, Allenwood Women's Institute and the New Flos Women's Institute.

Father Louis Dignard and Msgr. A. Belanger. Burial is to take place at St. Ann's Cemetery, Penetanguishene, in the spring.

Obituary

Cletus O'Conner Hillsdale native

Cletus O'Conner of RR 1, Hillsdale, Ont. passed away in his 95th year on Nov. 27, 1980, following a brief illness.

Death occurred at Stevenson Memorial Hospital, Alliston, Ont.

Mr. O'Conner was born in Mount St. Louis, Ont., to John O'Conner and Mary Guthrie. He was single, lived all his life in Mount St. Louis and was predeceased by his parents.

Cletus O'Conner was also predeceased by two sisters and six brothers and was the last surviving member of the O'Conner family, a well-known family of Mount St. Louis.

Funeral services were held Dec. 1, 1980 at St. Louis Church, under the direction of Father Philip A. Wiley. Burial took place at St. Louis Cemetery in Mount St. Louis.

Pallbearers were: Harold Cadeau, Bill Howell, Gabriel Pauze, Richard Pauze Sr., Richard Pauze Jr. and Michael Stimas.

Obituary

Mrs. Lilo Hagen had been RNA

The death occurred, Nov. 26, 1980 of Mrs. Lilo Hagen, formerly of 19 Lower Road, Penetanguishene, Ont., following a lengthy illness.

Mrs. Hagen, whose maiden name was Lieselotte Schindler passed away at Huronia District Hospital, Midland Ont., in her 52nd year.

She was born in Hamburg, Germany to Karl Schindler and Frida Lukas of Germany and following her marriage to Karl Hagen, lived the past 12 years in Penetanguishene.

Mrs. Hagen was a Registered Nursing Assistant at the Penetanguishene Mental Health Centre.

She is survived by her husband, Karl Hagen of Penetanguishene and a son, Rolf-Bjorn Hagen of Cornwall. She is also survived by her parents.

Funeral services were held Nov. 28, 1980 at Beausoleil Funeral Home, Penetanguishene under the supervision of Reverend Paul Schult.

Following cremation, remains were buried at Stoke's Bay Cemetery in Stoke's Bay, Ontario.

Obituary

Mrs. Mabel Gibson passes following a brief illness

Death occurred Dec. 6, 1980 of Mrs. Mabel Gibson (maiden name Mabel Alexander), following a brief illness at Georgian Manor, her last place of residence.

Mrs. Gibson was in her 84th year.

Born in Toronto, Ont., she lived the past 35 years in Penetanguishene. She was widow of the late Harold Gibson.

Mrs. Gibson was predeceased by her parents, George Alexander and Georgina Lister and by her husband.

She is survived by her son, H.A. (Al) Gibson and his wife Roberta of Toronto. In addition she is survived by five grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

On Dec. 9, 1980 funeral services took place at Beausoleil Funeral Home, Penetanguishene under Reverend Robert Sinclair.

Burial to take place in the spring at St. James-on-the-Lines Cemetery.

T&G Fabrics

FIRE SALE

Smoke and Fire damage

EVERYTHING IN THE STORE

1/2 PRICE OR LESS

•Dress Goods •Pound Goods •Drapery Fabric
•Upholstery Fabric •Leatherette •Fun Fur •Notions

Fire Sale ends Saturday, Dec. 20th

T&G FABRICS
365 King St., Midland