On Friday evening at the Centre, a Tree Trimming was held. Quite a few youngsters with their parents showed up despite the weather. All helped to string coloured marshmallows, even though a lot were eaten and put them and many colourful decorations on the tree.

The evening was topped off by a visit from Santa, who got each child's name and their list for Christmas, then gave each one a bag of candy.

On Thursday evening, at the Anglican Church Hall, the Women's Institute held their Christmas party for the members and their husbands.

The Institute Grace was said, and all sat down to a delicious potluck supper. Following this a short meeting was held. Roll Call was for each member to bring a stamped unaddressed Christmas card. Minutes and treasurer's report were read.

Each member exchanged a gift. Several games were played, winners were Ladies -

Marg Armstrong, Winnie Armstrong and Berneice Drinkill. Men's were Ron Leonard, Cecil Kells and Morris Darby. Also, winners of Euchre card game were Ladies' High - Eva Brown; Ladies' Low Winnie Armstrong; Men's High - Casey Vanderpoel, Men's Low Reg Drinkill.

The children's Co-op Playgroup held their Christmas party on Tuesday morning at the Centre. All sang Christmas carols, had cake and juice.

Two special visitors also attended the party. They were a magician, who was Brad Young from Anten Mills and of course Santa Claus.

Thanks to these special visitors for helping to make this party a great success. This was the last get-together of this group for this year. Please watch in the newsletter from the Centre or in this paper for dates as to when the Playgroup will begin again in the new year.

Nichols gets pair for Meatland

Bantam House League action in Midland Arena Saturday saw Meatland defeat Cowan Construction 4-1 in a game where Andrew Nichols scored a pair of goals for Meatland.

Nichols scored one of his goals unassisted while Robert McCallum assisted on the other.

Other goal getters for Meatland were Bill Kennedy unassisted and Andrew Duckworth from Willie Parliament. The lone goal for Cowan Construction was scored by Greg Daniels unassisted.

In other house league action, Smith's Mobile squeezed out Walker's Electric 5-4 with Chris Moreau, Jeff King, John Quesnelle, Rick Shoesmith and Art Perrault scoring for Smith's mobile.

Goal getters for Walker's Electric were David Sibley, Keith Proulx, Richard Ellsmere and Robert Tucker.

Five spots, more candidates

Terry Spiker of Midland Athletics Intermediate A hockey club is still in possession of first place in the scoring race for that league.

He has the most goals at 19 but trails in the assist department with 14.

However, the combination of the two places him in the top spot for total points at 33.

Spiker has to share that top spot though with Myles McCauley of Collingwood Shipbuilders.

Top five spots in the league are hotly contested and they shape up like this:

	G	A	Pts
Terry Spiker, Midland	19	14	33
Myles McCauley, Collingwood	16	17	33
Vytas Urbas, Orillia	16	16	32
Ron Twiss, Georgetown	15	17	32
Les Burgess, Collingwood	12	20	32
Steve Lyon, Georgetown	7	25	32
Lance Kealy, Owen Sound	14	16	30
Murray White, Collingwood	15	14	29
John Matthews, Collingwood	14	14	28
Frank Sheffield, Barrie	13	15	28
Ray Tonelli, Georgetown	12	16	28

COLONEL HARLAND SANDERS 1890-1980

He was a rare amalgam of a man. Soldier, sailor, railroad man, self-taught lawyer. A great humanitarian and deeply religious.

At the age of 65, when many look toward retirement, Colonel Sanders established one of the most successful businesses ever known. It was based on mutual trust and a handshake. Out of it grew the Colonel Harland Sanders Charitable Foundation. His licensees also became his friends, and spread his philosophy of integrity and value across Canada.

In recent years, as friends and family spoke of retirement or even taking things easy, his only answer was:

"I'd sooner wear out than rust out."
And that's what he did.

If a man is measured by his accomplishments, Colonel Sanders was a giant. He'll be missed.
