

All ready for Christmas shoppers

At the turn of the century this grocery store at Christmas time was filled with chicken, turkey and hams. As well sides of beef were hung to tempt the Christmas dinner food shopper. This picture out of Huronia's past really says it all. Have you a picture from the past you'd like us to print? He'd be more than happy to hear from you. As usual all prints will be returned once they are published here.
