

Midland skiers not going downhill

A team of Midland skiers have claimed top honours at a ski competition this past weekend at Loretto Ski Resort in Loretto, Ont.

Local players chosen for All-Star team

This Saturday night will be a very important date for six local hockey players indeed as they have been chosen to play on the Georgian Bay Junior C All-Star Hockey Team.

Four of the six play on Penetanguishene Kings Jr. C hockey club while two more play on Midland Centennials Jr. C hockey club.

For the Kings, the players on the All-Star team will be Brad Copeland on left defence, Wayne Dixon on centre, Carl Cowan on right wing and Doug Gillespie on left wing.

For the Midland Centennials, John Witzke on left defence and Ken Mugford on left wing will be representing that local club.

The Penetanguishene Kings will also be represented behind the bench with Don Tannahill as acting coach for the all-star team and Peter Dubeau as acting manager of the team.

The Georgian Bay All-Star Team will be playing in Gravenhurst Arena against the Mid-Ontario Jr. C League All-Star Team, that game getting underway at 8 p.m.

The complete team will look like this:

Paul Ryan, Gravenhurst	Goal

Spiker joined by Knapton

As of Jan. 9, Terry Spiker of the Midland Athletics Intermediate A's continues to lead that league in scoring but is still in third place because of fewer assists.

Spiker has 22 goals, the closest competitor to him being Lance Kealy of Owen Sound Greys with 21 goals.

Kealy is presently in second place for total points with 41 points.

Midland Spiker has 40 points and is tied with Myles McCauley of Collingwood Shipbuilders in that position.

Leading the league is Les Burgess of Collingwood Shipbuilders with 15 goals and 28 assists for 43 points.

Burgess is tied with Steve Lyon of Georgetown Raiders for assists at 28, Lyon now in a tie for sixth place.

A new face has joined the league leaders from Midland's team and that is Ken Knapton.

Knapton has 17 goals and 20 assists for 37 points, placing him in fifth position.

A complete listing of the top seven positions in the Intermediate A hockey league follow:

	G	A	Pts
Les Burgess, Coll	15	28	43
Lance Kealy, O.S.	21	20	41
Vytas Urbas, Orillia	20	21	41
Terry Spiker, Midland	22	18	40
Myles McCauley, Coll.	19	21	40
Murray White, Coll.	19	19	38
Ken Knapton, Midland	17	20	37
Larry Coe, Coll.	13	23	36
John Matthews, Coll.	18	17	35
S. Lyon, Georgetown	7	28	35
F. Sheffield, Barrie	16	18	34

The team was made up of 10 male skiers and three female skiers from Midland and for the first time in seven years, the results were more than encouraging.

Seven of the 10 male skiers on the team finished in the top seven spots and they were in order of finishing: Kevin Cowden, Tim Leitch, Chris Heath, Mark Pinkney, Greg Schuh, Simon Moore and Mina Tessier.

Matthew Leitch, Paul Northcott and Pat Beauchamp failed to place in the competition but still put on good showings.

Stacey Leitch finished third in ladies' skiing while Adrean Brennan took fifth place.

Stephanie Johnson was bedridden by the flu and could not compete in the weekend competition.

McC's long wait over

Bill McCuaig of Penetanguishene Hotel Brule Oldtimers hockey club has been waiting a long time to score a goal but his long wait ended Saturday night in Collingwood Arena as the Penetanguishene team played to a 6-6 tie with the Collingwood Oldtimers.

McCuaig scored one goal for Penetanguishene, his second goal in three years while Larry Banks recorded a hat trick for Penetanguishene.

Alvin Robillard and Dave Stainton each got singles for Penetanguishene in that game as well.

Penetanguishene Oldtimers will be playing this Saturday in Coldwater, that game getting under way at eight p.m.
