

Harbour Lions forming a new Leo Club, Feb. 1

Plans are well underway by members of Victoria Harbour and District Lions Club to form a Leo Club in the Harbour.

The new youth activity club will be open to young people from 13 to 18 years of age, according to Lions Club president Douglas Barker.

John Bauland is in charge of the public relations aspect of the new club which intends to meet Feb. 1 at the Victoria Harbour Community Centre in an effort to get the new Leo Club off the ground.

It is expected a short film will be shown at the time and a period will be set aside for questions and answers.

So far 20 young people have indicated an interest in the new organization and more are likely to show up for the Feb. 1 meeting.

For more details young people in Victoria Harbour and district are asked to get in touch with Mr. Bauland by calling 534-7574.

In announcing the formation of the Leo Club, Douglas Barker, Lions Club president, noted that the young people of Victoria Harbour and area have tremendous talent and energy and view the needs of the community from a definite perspective.

The Leo Club will provide them with the opportunity to join together and develop their own approaches to solving community problems. The Lions will advise members, but they will be free to design their own projects and elect their own officers. Leos will also have their own budget.

Lions Clubs have fostered youth activities for years. Among community service groups, they are the largest single sponsors of Bay Scout units in the world. They also operate a Youth Exchange and Youth Camp Program which includes several nations.

The Leo Club Program was formally adopted by The International Association of Lions Clubs in 1967, and has for its purpose the development of leadership potential and community service in young people.

Friendship and mutual understanding are other essential goals of Leo Clubs.

For mothers use

The Huronia District Hospital Auxiliary recently bought and donated an $11,505 foetal monitor to the hospital. Auxiliary President Barb Simpson, left, and the chief of the obstetrics department, Dr. Merilyn McTavish, check a readout. The machine monitors the heartbeats of both mother and unborn child.

Scout motto applies for jamboree: Be Prepared

by Robin Nutbrown
An updated article was published in the January/February Provincial Notes pertaining to the Canadian Jamboree scheduled for July 1-10, 1981.

The Canadian Jamboree has been planned on the basis of each participant carrying and using lightweight camping and cooking gear. The C.J.'81 definition of lightweight gear is "that which can be carried on the person to the campsite."

The distance between the entrance and the various subcamps varies between one-quarter mile and one mile.

Because of the altitude (nearly a mile), wind, temperature extremes, and the type of terrain, the C.J. '81 site will present a real challenge to each participant and unit.

The following is provided to help you select the kind of equipment to bring to ensure your comfort and safety.

Sturdy hiking boots, well broken in.
Warm sleeping bag, good to 0 degrees C.

Tents. Lightweight wall tent with breathable roofs and waterproof flysheets; strong poles to withstand winds up to 60 miles per hour. Be prepared with replacements and repair materials.

Tent pegs - because of the "cobble" soil (small stones) and the constant winds, pegs must be at least 10 inches in length. They must be metal; a 10 inch galvanized eavestrough spike would do; but not wood, plastic or lightweight aluminum.

A complete list of personal and unit gear is included in the Jamboree Manual, which will be distributed to all registered Jamboree Units shortly.

Unique service

Anglican clergy and laity from York, Tecumseth, Nottawasaga, and Huronia areas attended the service of consecration for the Right Reverend Arthur D. Brown, their new Regional Bishop yesterday at St. Paul's Church in Toronto.

The service was unique in that three bishops were consecrated for work as Suffragan (Assistant) Bishops in the Diocese of Toronto.
