

Dock Lunch doubles Chalet Sports

Dock Lunch doubled Chalet Sports Sunday in Penetanguishene

Recreational Hockey in Penetanguishene Arena to the tune of 6-3.

Bill McIntosh was the big gun for Dock Lunch as he scored four goals for his team and got one assist as well. Ken Edgar and

Martin McNamara also scored for Dock Lunch in that game.

Edgar also picked up another three points in assists while Larry Cowan got two assists.

Single assists were received by Wayne Miller, Larry Langley and Bill Mundy.

Hindson Marine's Ron Lalonde scored a pair of goals as his team downed B & J Gas Bar 5-2.

Ray Cote, Mike Dusome and Bob Dion all scored singles in that game.

James Dupuis got three assists for Hindson while Lalonde, Gary Buttineau, Marcel Vallee and Roger Dusome each got single assists.

Peter Decourcy and John Bell scored singles for B & J Gas Bar with Terry Dahmer and Dave Parent getting assists.

The win by Dock Lunch assures them of a first place finish with 28 points while Hindson Marine has clinched the second place finish with 22 points.

B & J Gas Bar and Chalet Sports are third and fourth in the league with 13 and 10 points respectively but they each have two games left so it is possible for their positions to switch around.

Hotel came so close

Midland Commodore Hotel Intermediate Men's Basketball Team played a disappointing game Wednesday night in Midland Secondary School's triple gym as they lost a close game to Queen's Hotel from Barrie 101-94 in overtime.

Midland were leading 84-82 nearing the end of regulation play but Queen's Hotel dropped the tying basket in with the buzzer sounding.

Queen's Hotel outplayed Midland in the overtime play and came up with the win.

Chester Graham shared top scorer with Marty McCrone of Queen's Hotel with 37 points each while Jeff Attwood was next highest with 15 points.

Mike Berdan scored 10 points for Midland.

Midland will play Wednesday at MSS against Stayner Mystics, that game getting under way at eight p.m.

Up my alley

by Dennis Brabant

The Zone Round for the Colt 45 210 & under tournament was held in Penetanguishene last Sunday with 60 bowlers competing from the Midland, Penetanguishene and Coldwater bowling alleys.

The top seven men and eight ladies won prizes and formed teams to travel to the regional finals where the winners at that level will advance to the provincial playoffs.

The tournament was run on the pins over average format and involved bowling three games with the winners being as follows:

Mens Team	P.O.A.	A
Elmer Pauze	+196	162
Norbert Desroches	+179	148
Luke Desroches	+153	138
Don Cruise	+124	153
Jim Grosvenor	+118	156
Ladies Team	P.O.A.	A
Frances McFarland	+198	97
Flora Dorion	+169	124
Anne Daoust	+141	151
Pauline Pauze	+139	134
Marg Allain	+133	143
Mixed Team	P.O.A.	A
Mike Huvers	+98	132
Bud Fleming	+96	175
Yvonne Parent	+111	145
Jackie Montgomery	+111	118
Linda Merkley	+86	123

There are at least 100 entrants in the Export "A" Classified tournament in each of the Midland and Penetanguishene bowling alleys.

The top two bowlers in each of the 10 classes will advance to the zone finals to be held March 15.

This means that between Midland and Penetanguishene there will be 20 winners overall after this weeks series are compiled.

The Midland Y.B.C. completed the Four Steps to Stardom Round last Saturday with the winners qualifying to advance to the zone finals. The winners were as follows:

The Commodore Hotel men's team rolled a sparkling 3,974 for their three games on Wednesday night which included a high single game of 1,390.

The team was led by J. P. Desroches with 338-845 and Louis Maurice with an 820 triple.

Paul Buttineau of the Garner's Sports team rolled a 346-843 triple.

The Midland alley is now under new management with Bud Debow taking over the job as manager last Monday.

Former owner Jim Paradiso is still living in the area and will continue to bowl with his teammates in the Wednesday Night Industrial League.

Jim is to be commended for his hard work in getting the Youth Bowling Council and Midland-Penetanguishene 5 Pin Bowlers Association off the ground.

We all wish him well in his future endeavors.

Time running out to enter Winterama contest

Winterama begins in two weeks. Some of the many contests being run in connection with the annual winter carnival will be closed to entries soon.

The Beautiful Baby Contest, sponsored by Gignac's Children's Wear, will not receive pictures of children, who should be under three years of age, after Feb. 20. Voting for the favourite picture will be cut off at 6 p.m. on Feb. 20.

Another contest that closes Feb. 14 is the Window Painting Contest. The Legion is giving prizes of $75, $50 and $25. Judging will be done Feb. 14.

Winterama's Shaggiest Moustache Contest will be held Winterama Saturday in the dock area at 3 p.m. Three categories will be judged: shaggiest, best groomed, and most impressive. Advance registration can be telephoned to 549-9841.

Awards for the best show sculpture will be given on Winterama Friday at noon. First prize is a dinner for the winning family at the Watergate Restaurant. The second and third prizes will be trophies.

Winterama basketball tournament

Eight teams will take part in the Ninth Annual Penetanguishene Winterama Senior Boys' Basketball Tournament scheduled for Saturday at Ecole Secondaire Penetanguishene Secondary School.

Teams from Penetanguishene, Midland, Barrie North, Parry Sound, Base Borden, Georgian Bay Secondary School, Eastview and Huntville will participate in the event.

Previous winners have been Base Borden in 1972, Midland in 1973,

Healthy hearts are a family affair—be sure you know the heart risk factors and the warning signs of heart attack and stroke and help the "Heart Fund".

Banting Memorial in 1975 and 1976, Orillia in 1977, Banting Memorial again in 1978, Orillia District in 1979 and Base Borden last year.

Action for this year's competition will get under way at 9:30 a.m. and the last game will begin at around eight p.m.

Ringette girls blitzed

The Elmvalle and District Girls' Ringette team hosted a squad from Stayner last Saturday and came away from the confrontation behind in a 10-3 score. It was a fun game for the girls though, especially the smaller ones and was a return match for both.

Elmvalle had previously met and defeated the Stayner group earlier in the month and downed them by a score of 13-5.
