

Coldwater

by E. Lorraine Orr
Coldwater's oral communications representative, Beverly Creighton, has advanced to the semi-finals with her presentation of "Smoking".

Beverly delivered her speech in competition, against six other students, at Harriett Todd Public School in Orillia last week. Each competitor was required to answer questions pertaining to their speech subject and also to do sight-reading.

Beverly will join the other two top performers at Hillcrest Public School to compete against semi-finals from other areas. Each competitor received a $5.00 gift certificate from the Epic Bookstore in Orillia.

Twelve year old Beverly is the daughter of Frances and Russell Creighton of Harriett Street in Coldwater.

Bill and Mona Beach have become grandparents for the first time. Their son, Donald and daughter-in-law Betty of Bolton became the proud parents of a 6 pound 11 ounce boy, on

The 3500 uniformed volunteers in the St. John Ambulance Brigade in Ontario offer invaluable service to their communities by providing First Aid protection at community events.

Queen and King

Queen and King of this year's Victoria Harbour Bon Homme Carnival were Janet Cadeau, 17, and Barry Bergie, 16. Royalty seems to run in the Bergie family. Last year's Queen was Barry's sister.

Lone winner

Although it was reported last week in the Lance that Pat Maloney and Wayne Booth of Elmvale won the grand prize of $100,000 in the Jan. 29 Wintario draw, this paper has since learned Ms. Maloney was the sole winner and is the only person named on the ticket, reports Wintario.

Sunday, January 8th. Congratulations to Frank Ostertag, Sr. of Fesserton, who celebrated his 75th birthday on Feb. 7.

A welcome to the village is extended to Pauline (nee Sova) and Lonnie Worrell and family, Rick, Deanne and Christopher formerly of Orillia.

They have recently purchased the former Zoa Dunlop home on Main Street, S.

Rex and Mary Polkinghorne have returned from a visit with their daughter, Geraldine Card, in Oshawa.

Friends of Gertrude Dalig will be pleased to learn she is home from the hospital.

The dates for the Coldwater Music Festival have been set for May 5-8.

Adjudicator will be Mrs. Elizabeth Reid of Orillia.

Teachers in the nine participating schools have received the syllabus and will soon be training the children for the many solos, and choir selections. Pianists are always needed — if you play the piano why not offer your services to your local school to help the children with their music.

Leslie (nee Whalen) and Don Laybourne of Armstrong, Ontario recently became the proud parents of a ten pound baby boy. A brother for Michael.

There is to be a Valentine Dance at the Coldwater arena on Feb. 14 at 8:30 p.m. Music by the Bellaires. The event is sponsored by the Coldwater and District Figure Skating Club. Tickets are $4 per person.

Nineteen-year-old Robert Ostertag has successfully completed all the necessary tests and is now a member of the Armed Forces.

Robert, who is stationed in Cornwall, Nova Scotia, is the son of Barbara and Frank Ostertag Jr. of Fesserton.

The 86th birthday of her mother was cause for celebration so Meda Godward travelled to Paderborn, West Germany to be with her.

Although the snow was not as plentiful as here, it did prevent Meda from travelling further afield. The streets there are narrow and the snow-cleaning process is not as modernized as Canada so the roads were too dangerous to travel on.

Meda has returned to her Gill Street home after a seven week visit. At a recent meeting of the Coldwater Businessmen's Association the group studied maps, showing the proposed cloverleafs and other changes to be made to the existing highways surrounding Coldwater. At present a cloverleaf is planned for the area of the Moonstone Hill.

It is the intention of the directors of the organization to arrange a meeting with politicians, engineers and Board of Transport, department heads to discuss the above mentioned proposals.

The executive of the Association has appointed Mrs. Barbara Watt to serve as director.

A motion was passed to arrange early for rental of space at the 1981 Coldwater Fall Fair. Last year the organization was too late in applying.

Joe and Joyce Barden travelled to Huntsville to help celebrate the first birthday of their grandson, Colin Harris Barden. Colin is the son of Trevor and Roz Barden. Also visiting were the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Harris.

Members of Coldwater and District Figure Skating Club held their test day at Guthrie on January 25th. A panel of three CFSA judges gave the following results: Preliminary figures - Kelly Hall, Shelby Boyd, Kim Beach and Stacey Werex. Dutch waltz: Kim Beach, Kim Simpson, Leanne Potter, Shelby Boyd, Niki Swailes, Lisa Curran, Karen Archer, Jackie Shaw, Dawn Mahoney and Jodie Jennett. Canasta Tang: Tracey Biggs, Vanessa Crombie and Kim Beach. Swing: Janice Robertson.
