Last Thursday evening the Anglican Church Women of Wyebridge held a meeting and decided to dispense with their past practice of holding an afternoon meeting and an evening one.

Under their new format, members plan to meet as one group.

One month's meeting will be held during the afternoon, with the following month's meeting held in the evening.

Officers for the ACW include: Ruth Curry, President; Pauline Reynolds, Secretary; and Marion Fallis, Treasurer.

This coming Saturday the Wyebridge Community Centre will be hopping to the sounds of the Northern Edition as they will supply the music to another Wyebridge dance.

Tickets are $9 per couple and a lunch will be served after the dance.

Last weekend we had the pleasure of having David, Doris, Douglas, Chad and Andrew Webster as dinner guests. David, Doris and sons are residents of Midland Bay Woods.

Walter Carpenter spent a few days in the hospital recently, where he regained his health and strength under doctors' care. Walter is home now and we welcome his return to the village.

A few weekends ago, Stu and Peggy Withers travelled to Mount Forest to visit Peggy's brother George in hospital.

They enjoyed a nice visit together and we were glad to hear of George's marked improvement over the last little while.

Wyebridge Volunteer Fire Department was called out Sunday evening to tame a fire at the Mountainview Ski Hills.

The fire started due to an electrical malfunction in one of the ski lift buildings which house the generator, it is understood.

Firefighters were called out again Monday evening, but this time the cause was a little more enjoyable.

They took part in the parade honouring the Canadian Men's Figure Skating Champion Brian Orser, home from Halifax.

First Wyebridge Cubs travelled to the den of the Fourth Midland Cubs last Thursday evening and took part in a carnival night organized by Fourth Midland Akela Roger Flint and his assistants.

The boys enjoyed the many games and contests and hope to hold a carnival night of their own in the near future.

Huronian Trophies is now open and ready for business.

Wyebridges' newest business will handle most trophy requirements for any sports or social organization. For further information, Call Sandra Reynolds at 526-9592.

Good luck Sandy with your new business endeavor.

Blighty Bingo is alive and doing well every Tuesday evening at 8 p.m. Doors are open at 6:30 p.m., so bring a friend and join in the fun.

The Wyebridge Hall Board of Directors held their January meeting last week and discussed several items pertaining to 1981 and their goals.

One of the first tasks was to organize their officers so that duties and responsibilities could be assigned.

The officers are as follows: Doug Reynolds, Chairman of the Hall

Board and President of the Wyebridge Parks and Recreation Association; Mill Ellery, Vice President; Cathy Davidson, Secretary; Bonnie Reynolds, Treasurer; Cathy Crawford, Chairperson of the Recreation Committee; and Gary Preston, Chairman of the Parks Committee.

The board is looking at various ways of raising money for 1981. Quilting has already started and a draw is expected in the near future.
