

Out of sight

Slower than a speeding volleyball is the photographer's camera during a volleyball game Sunday afternoon in the Midland YMCA. Parlour Games players from Midland, left, have already returned the serve.

Mosley, Chapman make wise investment

Stewart Mosley and Dean Chapman of Midland-Penetanguishene Five-Pin Bowling Association have gotten their money's worth out of a dollar in the Ontario Five Pin Bowler's Association's High-Low Doubles' Tournament held Saturday in Orillia.

To enter that tournament, they each had to pay one dollar and for that amount, they have won a silver platter, a wine carafe and an electric alarm clock/radio after placing 20th in a field of 72 teams.

St. T's girls are something else!

St. Theresa's High School in Midland has had very good success with their three boys' volleyball teams but the girls' teams are something to talk about as well.

St. Theresa's senior girls attended the Crestwood Classic Volleyball Tournament in Peterborough Saturday.

There were 10 teams entered in the high calibre tournament.

St. Theresa's came up against Merivale from Ottawa and took both games 15-7 and 15-1 in their first match of round robin play.

Merivale won the Ontario Federation of Secondary School Association finals two years ago.

St. Theresa's then split their next games with Henry 53 by scores of 10-15 and 15-11.

Clarke of Ottawa took both games from St. Theresa's seniors 15-9 and 15-5 but St. Theresa's came back to claim two wins against Cederbrae from Scarborough 15-10 and 15-7.

They continued their winning ways by defeating Peterborough 15-2 and 15-7 which left them tied for first in their pool.

In the semi-finals, St. Theresa's came up against Earl Haigh, the defending OFSSA champions but the resident winners wouldn't give up the win, beating St. Theresa's 15-6 and 15-7.
