ESPSS girls volleyball

The three girls' volleyball teams from Ecole Secondaire Penetanguishene Secondary School had mixed success Friday as they battled St. Theresa's High School in Midland and Midland Secondary School.

ESPSS midget girls lost their match to St. Theresa's 15-13 and 15-11 but they did win their first game against MSS 15-13.

MSS came back to win the next two games

Going into their second game of the semi-final series with Parry Sound Shamrocks will be Midland Centennials Jr. C hockey club. that game being played at 2:30 p.m. in Parry Sound.

though 15-11 and 15-10. ESPSS junior girls defeated St. Theresa's two games straight but they just seemed to run out of steam when they met MSS as they gave up two very close games 15-13 and 16-14.

St. Theresa's took the first and third game of their match but ESPSS took the second game 15-4. the worst beating St. Theresa's senior girls have taken in three years.

Weekend Ski Watch

The following ski resorts are reporting good alpine conditions in this area: Medonte Mountain with 30-60 centimeters combination base. Horseshoe Valley with 50 centimeters combination base and Mount St. Louis with 50-80 centimeters combination base.

Reporting fair to good conditions is Blue Mountain in Collingwood with a base of 80 centimeters man-made snow and 45 centimeters of natural snow and a trace of new natural snow.

No report was available for Mountain View Ski Hills in Midland but the recent snow fall is evidence of good conditions there.

For cross country, Lafontaine Ski Trails, Medonte Mountain, Horseshoe Valley, Maple Valley Ski Trails, Mountain St. Louis and Wasaga Beach Ski Trails are reporting good conditions with an average of 40-60 centimeters of snow on the trails at all resorts.
