

Obituary

Arthur Jesseau, of 155 Main Street, Penetanguishene, and a World War One veteran, died on February 4, 1981, in Penetanguishene

General Hospital after a brief illness. He was 84. Mr. Jesseau was one of the 500 volunteers from Newfoundland known as The Blue Puddies to serve in World War One, and one of the 60 who survived the war. He was captured and held in a prison camp for 18 months until he escaped, two days prior to the war's end. Born in Cornerbrook, Newfoundland, the son of Augustin Jesseau and Julia O'Connell (both deceased), he came to this area in 1962.

He was a widower. His wife was the late Marion Dorion. He was a member of the Royal Canadian Legion Branch No. 80, Midland, Ontario.

Surviving him are his sons Howard of Toronto, Maurice of Toronto, Joseph of Vancouver, William of Vancouver, Gordon of Penetanguishene, John of Penetanguishene, and Albert of Beaver-Ann's Memorial Church, Penetanguishene. Burial in Holy Cross Cemetery, Thornhill, Ontario. Veterans Howard Henderson, Alf Peel, Charles Ward, Vern Sweeting, Jim Ellis and Don McPeake were pallbearers. Frank Graham and George Tunnock were honorary pallbearers. All are Royal Canadian Legion Branch No. 80 members.
