Master Bowlers Association is contemplating putting on a coaches' clinic on Feb. 28 and March 1 in Midland.

Anyone who has completed the instructors course and is interested in obtaining their coaching certificate should contact the writer as soon as possible.

Coaches for the Colt 45 teams have been officially confirmed: Al Morin for the mixed team, Allan Beard for the ladies and Rex Dorkings for the mens teams.

The national classified tournament was conducted in both local bowling lanes last week.

The top two bowlers in each of the men's and ladies' classes will advance to the zone finals in March. The official results from the Midland group are as follows reflecting flat score for three games bowled.

Class	Name	Score
Class 1	Jeanne McMann	629
	Carl White	759
	Dave Laurin	728
Class 2	Debbie Chadwick	586
	Pauline Brabant	575
	J.P. Desroches	845
Class 3	Paul Buttineau	843
	The Penetang results will be announced next week.
	Around the Leagues: Bill "Shotgun" Puiddicomb was top bowler of the week with a 917 triple in the Penetang Industrial League.
Class 4	The "Swinging Singles" team in the Midland Tuesday 7-Ups League rolled games of 1439 - 1190 and 1312 for a 3941 total score.
	There is still two openings in the men's division of the Winterama tournament this weekend. Call the writer for details at 361-2996.

defeating Collingwood 3-1 in Collingwood Arena, Sunday afternoon.

Midland took the first game 5-4 at Midland Centennial Arena,

Saturday afternoon.

In Sunday's game, Midland took the lead with 7:55 left in the first period, Archie Merides getting the goal with assists going to Chris Duckworth and Peter Lalonde.

Both teams remained scoreless in the middle period.

Time to break away from home hibernation

Old Man Winter may be getting some people down, but the staff at the Wye Marsh Wildlife Interpretation Centre is busy preparing for the best Winter Weekend Open House ever, Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 21 and 22.

This annual, free event promises enjoyment for everyone from the youngest family member right up to the experienced naturalist.

Snowshoes will again be on loan in the foyer of the Wildlife Centre for use on the various trails marked throughout the property.

For small children, warm snowsuits and boots it all that is required as the snow is packed enough for easy walking.

Naturalist staff will be on hand to show you the basics of snowshoeing and answer your questions out on the trails. Those who prefer cross-country skiing are welcome to bring their own skis along.

Inside, the Special Interest Area of the display hall will feature displays on winter adaptations of plants, mammals, birds, reptiles and fish. Find out - "Where they go in winter", "How to recognize their tracks", "How to feed the birds".

Challenge yourself with a nature game on the Centre's computer. Enjoy narrated slide shows in the theatre, children's colouring corner, free take-home handouts on local animals, sip on some natural wild tea and generally enjoy a fun day outside. Remember, it's all free, at the Wye Marsh Wildlife Interpretation Centre from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Feb. 21 and 22.

Phillips top scorer for Midland Rec Hockey

Brian Phillips of Athenian Flyers has captured the scoring championship for Midland's Recreation Hockey League with 22 goals and 24 assists for 46 points.

The player with the most goals was Ken Edgar of Athenian Flyers with a total of 24 while Don Lefaive of Athenian Flyers had the most assists at 28.

Most assists by a defenceman was 21, Keith Bath of Performance Motor Sports claiming that honour.

Best goaltender for the league was Ted Preston of Duggan's Polar Kings.

Individual awards will be presented at the league's banquet April 11.

Des Carpenter Congratulates Jaquie Bodouin Courtesy Ford Employee of the Month

Managing a rental fleet of 14 vehicles, new and used car customer credit and sales and leasing administration at our company is a full days work believe us. Jaquie covered all the bases last month and hit a home run when she sold seven new cars in 22 days. Now that's the type of player every team likes to have.

Jaquie is a home townner, naturally bilingual and has worked with our company for 4 years. Responsible, energetic and dependable she's a real bonus for Courtesy. In recognition of her value and ability Jaquie has been asked to accept a full share in vehicle sales management with our general manager and myself.

Thank you Jaquie for your help and for your friendship over the years and congratulations as Courtesy Employee of the month.

Signed
Des Carpenters
