Bus, car collide in Flos township

Two youngsters were taken yesterday to Royal Victoria Hospital in Barrie after the school bus in which they were riding was in a collision with a car on Highway 27 in Flos Township.

Ashley Light and James Concilla received minor cuts and bruises, Elmvale OPP said. The driver of the car, Peter Windrem of Elmvale, was also taken to Royal Victoria Hospital, with minor head injuries.

The bus was turning left at the time of the accident.

The school bus, driven by Lois Holt of Phelpston, was turning left at the time of the accident. OPP are still investigating this mishap.

Gaye Lamb to run for NDPs

Gaye Lamb, president of the Barrie Labour Council and NDP candidate in the 1979 federal election, won her party's nomination at their meeting held in Barrie last Thursday and as a result, will campaign under the New Democratic Party banner in the March 19 provincial election for Simcoe Centre.

Ms. Lamb and her party have listed the bed shortages at Royal Victoria Hospital in Barrie and the economy as two of the issues that will face candidates in the upcoming election.

Paul Wessinger, the party's candidate in the last federal election, has been appointed Campaign Manager of the NDP campaign and Mark Vincer, former Barrie Banner Editor will be her publicity chairman.

Gaye Lamb will be facing incumbent George Taylor on the Conservative's side and Bruce Owen for the Liberal party.

Dr. Barker profiled in Today

Penetanguishene area psychiatrist Dr. Elliott Barker was the subject of a profile in a recent issue of the weekend newspaper supplement, Today.

Barker is the founder of the Canadian Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to children, a non-profit organization created in Midland five years ago. He was a staff psychiatrist at Oak Ridge in Penetanguishene for seven years, starting in 1967.

During his time there he revolutionized the treatment program for psychopaths. He left Oak Ridge after seven years because his enthusiasm was gone. He retains a minor professional association with Oak Ridge.

Handy Andy window best decorated

John Verreault has won the first prize in the Penetanguishene Legion's Winterama window painting contest. He decorated the Handy Andy window.

All of the paintings on store windows were made by high school students. High school teacher Hugh Niblock was the organizer.

Second prize went to Gerard Forget (Chalet Sports). Third prize went to Kim Vaillancourt (Toronto-Dominion Bank). Angela Kim received fourth prize for her painting of the Post Office window. Rob Buxton (The Citizen) and Patty Beausoleil (Dock Lunch) tied for fifth place.

Council meets Monday night

Midland council will hold another of its monthly meetings, Monday night at 7:30 p.m.

To be held in the council chambers, the meeting as usual will be open to the general public.

...we're ahead of last year's

So far this winter a total of 276.02 centimeters of snow has fallen on Midland since Nov. 24, 1980 when three centimeters fell to kick off winter 1980-81.

That works out to 108.7 inches of snow this season. During all last winter 95.5 inches of snow fell on this part of Ontario situated in the heart of Huronia at the Gateway to the 30,000 Islands.

YMCA Family night

The Midland Family YMCA has developed another exciting special event designed for the families of Midland and surrounding areas.

On Friday evening, March 6, the YMCA will be hosting a Family Night which will feature many fun and exciting activities for all.

Beginning at 6 p.m. the scheduled events will be making the most of both outdoor and indoor facilities in the park and at the YMCA. Tobogganing will be taking place on the hills beside the Huron Indian Village, skating on the lake and also a cross-country ski trail will be marked out through Little Lake Park.

In addition to these outdoor activities, there will be horse-drawn sleigh rides through the park.

Indoor activities will begin at 7 p.m. with hot chocolate being served.

Other games and activities will be beginning in the gymnasium which families will be able to slot into.

Family swimming will start at 7:15 p.m. and will continue until 9:30 p.m.

In addition, an indoor feature will be family whirlpools.

Cross-country ski rental equipment will be available through the YMCA so that those people who do not have their own equipment will be able to participate in this popular activity.

The Midland YMCA Family Night is designed for all families in the Huronia area and promises to be a fun and enjoyable special event.

For more information on the Family Night or other YMCA programs, contact Doug Trace at the Y by calling 526-7828.
