Cumming-Nicholson bonspiel full of surprises

After the first two days of action in the Cumming-Nicholson Mixed Bonspiel at Midland Curling Club, there have been a lot of close games and a few big upsets.

The first game took place between Bob Bell and Hank Coleman Monday and the Coleman rink made no mistake about their winning that game as they blanked the Bell rink 11-0 in eight ends of play.

Other action for Monday included Bill

Howard over June Walton 7-6, Maurice Steffler over Bill Scott 8-3 and Ken Milley over Keith Williams 8-4.

On Tuesday, John Bourgeois and Del Thorpe tied 6-6, Jim Clark lost to Jim Shaw 13-3, Nelson Cote defeated Rod Reynolds 8-6, Kent Carstairs edged Doug Muxlow 7-6 and Leighton Smith gave up an 8-7 game to Chuck Walton.

Action resumed last night and will continue tonight and all day tomorrow with a dance following the finals.

MSS boys take two wins

Midland Secondary School's midget boys' basketball team had a very successful day Saturday in Gravenhurst when they took part in a three team round robin tournament.

MSS boys won their first game over Bracebridge 54-49, Bob Devine leading MSS with 11 points.

Tim Grenier, Doug Woods and Bill Richardson each scored seven points in that game.

MSS also took the second game against Gravenhurst as they won that match 49-39.

Tim Grenier and Bob Devine each scored 16 points in that game.

Steve Bissen and Andy Franz both played good, defensive ball for Midland and the rest of the team supported their play with a strong offence.

Junior girls undefeated

Midland Secondary School's junior girls' volleyball team completed their regular season undefeated, their last win coming Thursday in Elmvale.

Midland juniors downed Elmvale 15-4 and 15-9 in their final two games.

MSS midget girls won their first game against Elmvale 15-13 but dropped the second game 15-8.

They then came back to win the third game and the match by beating Elmvale 17-15.

Midland's seniors never seemed to get started and dropped their first game 15-8.

They did come back to win the second game 15-11 but fell again losing the final game 15-8.
