

Good season all around

Midland Orchard Fresh Major Bantams have certainly come through with some good hockey this season in league play and in playoff action but the highlight of their season must have been when they hosted the Finnish team from Rauma-Lukka in January, losing by a close 10-6. Back row from left: Bill Richardson, Ralph Seeman, Jason

Connaught takes annual girls tourney

In the first annual Port McNicoll Girls' Invitational Basketball Tournament, a team from Connaught Public School in Collingwood took top honours Saturday by defeating Burkevale 29-24 in the finals championship round held at Port McNicoll Public School. The tournament was started because Connaught Public School of Midland wanted to play a game with Port McNicoll and it was decided to have several games instead of one. In the first game, Burkevale Public School of Penetanguishene beat Regent School of Midland 32-22 and Port McNicoll lost their game to Connaught in their first match.

Connaught edged out Burkevale in the championship round 29-24 to take the trophy.

Duggan's have backs to wall in finals

Duggan's Polar Kings of Midland Recreation Hockey certainly has their backs to the wall in the best of five playoff championship series with Olympia Sports.

games to none in the series. To make matters worse, they will have to play this coming Monday's game without their coach, Art Desroches who was thrown out of Monday's game with seven minutes left to play, receiving a game suspension.

That meant Port McNicoll and Regent would meet in the consolation round while Connaught and Burkevale would square off in the championship round.

Monday night in Midland Centennial Arena, they lost 7-2 to Olympia Sports which puts them behind two

In the consolation round, Port McNicoll came up with a 38-17 win over Regent and Con-

Fund raiser planned for Curling Rink

There will be a Monte Carlo Night held at Midland Curling Club Friday night in the upstairs section of the club with all proceeds going to buy matching blazers, slacks and turtle-neck sweaters for Glenn Howard's junior men's curling rink.

will run until about 12 or 1 a.m. Members of the Midland Club and the general public are encouraged to attend and help send our boys to Scotland in style.

The Midland group made up of Howard, Paul Harbottle, Tim Tully and Peter Mount won a trip to Scotland in January's Toronto Curling Club's Invitational Junior Men's Curling Bonspiel.

While in Scotland, the four boys will play exhibition games against some of the best Scottish teams.

Games of chance featured at the fund raising event will include blackjack, horse race and crown and anchor.

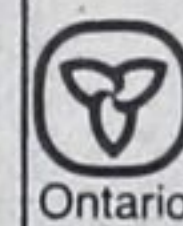

Participants will use play money they can purchase and there will be a bar downstairs for their convenience.

Everything gets underway at 9 p.m. and
