

Nordiques downed 2-1 by Canadiens

In Penetanguishene Minor Hockey's Eight-Year Old section, the Canadiens topped the Nordiques 2-1 Friday night in Penetanguishene Arena.

Doug Lunnie assisted on both of the Canadiens' goals, Greg Patenaude and Paul Watson accounting for those goals.

Jamie Sajandar accepted a pass from Roy Mundy to score the Leafs' lone marker.

In the game Saturday morning, the Nordiques and the Canadiens tied at 1-1. Keith Robillard scoring unassisted for the Canadiens.

Thor Hervieux scored for the Nordiques on a pass from Mark Piotrowski.

The next game in league play will see the Leafs and the Nordiques lock horns in Penetanguishene Arena Friday night while the Leafs and the Canadiens will face off at 12 p.m. the following day.

Sharp delivery!

Mark Desrochers, aged five, (centre), was one of the youngsters taking part in the Family Bonspiel in Penetanguishene last Sunday. Mark's father Louis (kneeling) gave a few tips but the lad's delivery set the rock quite close to the rings.

Lucky Strikers holding good lead

Lucky Strikers are indeed just that in Sunday Sinners Bowling League as they command a healthy lead with 26½ wins and 12½ losses for 62 points.

The closest team to that total is Alley Cats with 21 wins and 18 losses for 49 points and they are closely followed by Pat's Rats with 19 wins and 20 losses for 45 points.

Not out of the running though are the Born Losers with 17½ wins and 21½ losses for 42 points.

In fifth place are the Heavv Rollers with 16 wins and 23 losses for 39 points and Seven Ups have the same win, loss record but they have only 36 points.

Olympia Sports takes series

Olympia Sports of Midland Recreation Hockey are the official champions in that league after they defeated Duggan's Polar Kings 5-3 Monday night in Midland Centennial Arena.

It was the third game in their best of five championship series, Olympia Sports having won the first two games.

It was a close game all the way through until late in the final period when Olympia Sports took a two goal lead, the winning goal coming with 2:25 left to play.

The big gun for Olympia Sports was Earl Cousineau with a hat trick while Rick Lefaive and John Lemieux joined him with single markers.

Mike Duval, Ron Jeffery and Marcel Vallee were the goal getters for Duggan's Polar Kings.

For their win, Olympia Sports gets the Garner Sports Trophy.

league for men with a 217 total and he is not very far ahead of Jim Bressette and Gerald Lesperance who are bowling 209.

Sherrin Sykes has the ladies' high single title with her 186 score while Stella McIntaggart is making her presence in that race felt with her 183 score.

Gerald Lesperance holds the high single flat
