WI building a better civilization

by Jeanne Webb
The March meeting of Pine Ridge W. I. was held at the home of Mrs. Ed. Champaigne with 14 members present. The Roll Call was, where would you like to go on a bus trip? And many interesting suggestions were given. The motto was - It is not the talented who serve best, but the dedicated.

Hospital Visitors for this month are: Mrs. Margaret Marcellus and Mrs. Elwood Blow.

The W. I. will have a refreshment booth at Bill Hall's Farm and Implement Sale on April 25. Committee - Mrs. Elwood Blow, Mrs. H. Walker, Mrs. Grant Hall, Mrs. C. Grenier.

Plans were made to have a Craft Display at the Maple Syrup Festival in Elmvale at the Library.

Mrs. Wm. Marcellus gave a reading: Between the Lines by Florence Diamond.

She said, "The W. I. has the distinction of being the only organization organized for the good of the family, and still building on that foundation, we take pride in our achievements. We are helping to build a better civilization."

Also a reading by Margaret Zoeller was heard: Time.

This was followed by a couple of contests on the Women's Institute which were informative and a tasty lunch was served by Mrs. E. Champaigne and Mrs. H. Walker.

What Every Student Needs To Find A Job This Summer

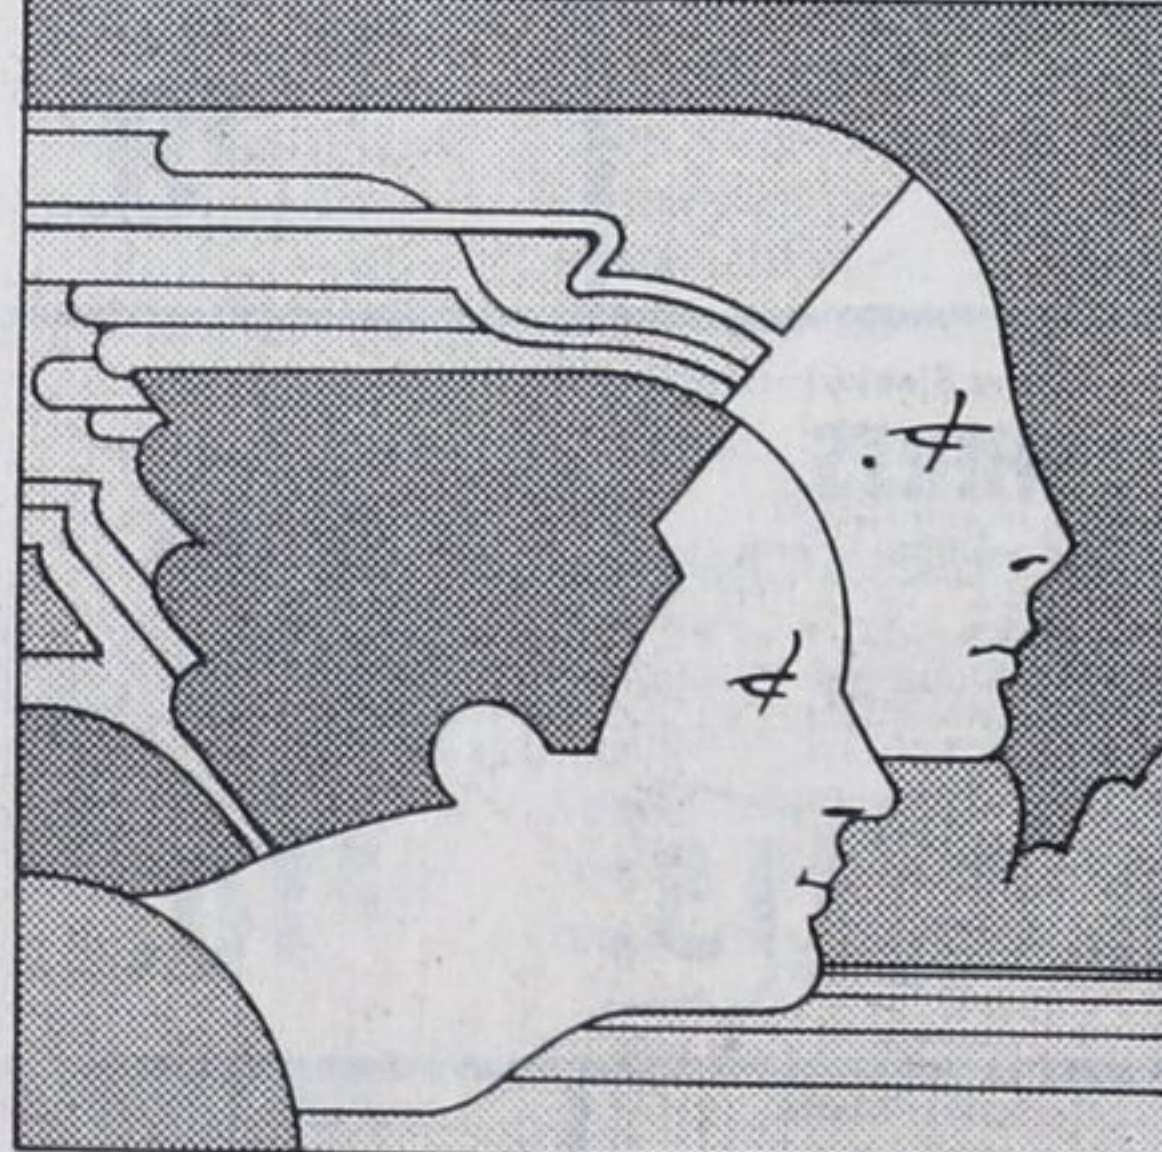

It takes more than a simple desire to work and a little good luck to find a job. It takes organization, determination and a willingness to try a variety of options.

That's why the Ontario Youth Secretariat has written a special handbook called "The Edge."

"The Edge" gives a systematic and positive plan of action for finding work and then making the most of it. It also gives guidelines on how to create a job by turning personal talents into a small enterprise.

"The Edge" is an essential primer for any young person looking for a job. That's why we're making it available free at high schools, college and university placement centres and libraries.

Or you can write to us, Ontario Youth Secretariat, Queen's Park, Toronto, Ontario, M7A 1Z1. We'll make sure you get "The Edge."
