Practice makes perfect

Members of Midland Secondary Schools rugby club were out this week getting ready for the upcoming season by doing some drills. Lloyd Pilon, left accepts the ball from the falling Dave Sibley as Mike Josland watches to see if they are doing the handoff right. The team's first game is tentatively set for April 23 in Parry Sound.

IGA-IDA lock horns for top spot

Midland IGA and Jory's IDA of Midland Minor Hockey's Atom House League will be meeting head on Saturday at 2 p.m. in Midland Centennial Arena as the two teams vie for the championship.

Midland IGA earned their place in the championship game by defeating Jory's IDA Wednesday night in Midland Centennial Arena 3-2 in the final game of round robin playoffs.

Midland IGA's three markers in that game were tallied up by Chris Gilbert, Chris Quesnelle and Trevor Irvine.

In the consolation round, it will be McQuirter's Real Estate and A. E. LePage playing Saturday in Midland

Centennial Arena at 1 p.m.

The two teams that won't be playing in the finals are Georgian Bay Real Estate and O.K. Johnson but they would like to take this opportunity to wish all teams involved luck in their games Saturday.

CASH IN ON YOUR SLOT MACHINES

A lot of people enjoy old fashioned slot machines as I do, and some even saved them over the years. Perhaps you have one at home, or at your club, or know where some might be, I'm a slot machine collector and I pay good money for them, no matter what condition.
