Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lalonde have returned from a lovely trip to Florida. They reported that the Clayton Agar

Senior League concludes with awards night

Elmvale Men's Senior Hockey League members completed its season last Saturday night by holding an annual awards night at the Community Hall.

Players, coaching staff and members of the league executive gathered there to pay tribute to those who had done well over the past season.

Awards and trophies were presented to individuals and teams alike.

The recipients of the League Winners trophy were the team from Barrie, Wellington Hotel, who led the league in wins prior to their ejection from the Thursday night group.

Play-off champions were the Minesing Islanders, the team who were never really given the chance to show their stuff during play off competition.

Best goaltender in the League was Bill Hillick of the Wellington Hotel team who had the best goals-against average of all completing net-minders.

The Most Valuable Player award, one that is voted on by players from the league, was a tie between Elmvale brothers Tim and Tom McGinnis, both of the Elmvale Steelers team.

And finally, the person determined to be the Most Sportsmanlike Player in the league, was Craig Beacock of the Wyevale squad.

Senior League Hockey is over now for another year and will resume in the fall for another season of action-packed play.

Club news

The Champlain Senior Citizens Club held a very nice Easter supper last Tuesday evening.

Sixty-four of us sat down to a delicious buffet consisting of chicken, ham, various attractive salads and apple pie.

Following the meal we enjoyed the movie "Stella Dallas".

Our usual card games put the finishing touch on the festivities.

We are pleased to have Bill and Bertha Thompson and George and Esther Jarvis back from their long winter holidays in Florida.

And it is with regret that we learned Tess Henderson is in the hospital. We sincerely hope she will be fully recovered and back in our midst very soon.
