

Penetanguishene rec hockey holds banquet

The Penetanguishene Recreational Hockey League held their year-end banquet and dance early this month.

On the agenda were the election of an executive, the announcement of league expansion and the presentation of the individual awards.

Frank St. Amant, president and Terry Dahmer, secretary, who were last year's executive, were re-elected on the merit of a successful year. Both Terry and Frank were acclaimed to their past position.

It was announced at the banquet that the league is expanding from four to six teams.

Hindson Marine, Dock Lunch, Chalet Sports, and Pollard's Refrigeration will be joined by the Commodore Hotel and Tilson T.V.

New rules have been made to accommodate the new teams.

Expansion will not alter the Sunday morning play as arrangements have been made to play all games Sunday.

The executive is looking for managers and coaches to help get the new teams off the ground.

As usual, some individual awards were easily selected. However, good year by many players made some choices difficult.

The final choices by the academy are:

Top Scorer was picked up by Ken Edgar whose 20 goals and 35 assists for 55 points were 22 points ahead of his closest rival.

MVP of the Year went to Ron Lalonde who ended up second in the scoring and sparked Hindson Marine all year with good effort.

Marcel Valley received MVP of the Playoffs. He scored a game winner in overtime and the tying goal to send the third game into overtime. Marcel's determination and drive to win were decisive factors in his team's victory.

The top goaltender was Wayne Dupuis who had a 3.20 average and 64 goals against. The race was close as he beat the runner-up by a mere six goals.

The Most Sportsmanlike Player Award went to Larry Langley who ended up fourth in scoring and had only six minutes in penalties.

The Rookie of the Year honors were presented to Ken Cowan who performed well in the second half of the year as well as in the playoffs.

MVP for each team were selected as well and they were: Hindson Marine's James Dupuis; Dock Lunch's Bill McIntosh; Chalet Sport's Larry Butson and B & J Gas Bar's Terry Dahmer.

Mike Brophy, coach of the Dock Lunch received the Coach of the Year Award. In four years as coach he led his team to two first place finishes, the finals twice and two championships.

Hindson Marine won the Dock Lunch Cup by beating Dock Lunch three games to one in the final playoff series.

Dock Lunch, who ended up two points ahead of Hindson, received the Nick Trophy emblematic of first place.

Members of each team received a trophy as a reminder of their successful seasons.

Hindson Marine thanked their coach Dan Delorme and sponsor

Arena number changed

If you've been trying to reach the Midland Centennial Arena but have been having a bit of trouble, it might just be because the number has changed.

The new number for those two places is 526-9395 and you should be able to speak to McLaren by calling that number.

Lawn bowling meeting tomorrow

Midland Lawn Bowling Club will be holding their semi-annual meeting tomorrow to finalize any last minute details for the upcoming season.

They already have several tournaments planned, some local and some involving out of town teams.

The first tournament of the year will be the Clare and Ken Ellis Trophy Tournament

Brian Hindson by presenting each with a memento of the team's gratitude.

The league presented Roger Ladouceur with a similar token of thanks for his many years of dedication and service

Dealer of the year

Don and Carol Ealey of Chalet Sports in Penetanguishene are the operators of the top Bombardier Ltd. dealership in Ontario. On Friday, Bombardier district manager Bob Gossling, left, presented Don, middle and Carol with a plaque. The Ealeys beat more than 200 other dealers to be Ontario dealer of the year.
