

Penetanguishene Minor Hockey honours handed out Monday

by Don Lawrence
Penetanguishene Minor Hockey held their annual banquet Monday night in Penetanguishene Arena.

The evening began with the introduction of the head table and the Mother's Auxiliary who prepared the food for the banquet.

At the head table were League President Veronica Cowan, Vice-president Josie O'Hara, Directors Teresa Quesnelle and Rita Hook, Secretary Yvonne Ladouceur and Secretary-Treasurer Elaine Gianetto.

Penetanguishene Mayor Ron Bellisle then spoke to those present at the banquet.

The current executive of Penetanguishene Minor Hockey was then introduced and they were Past President Gloria Cowden, Vice-President David Dupuis, Second Vice-President Gary Ronald, Secretaries Pat Roi and Pat Ryan, Finance Chairman Paul Dion and Directors Ann Morrow, Maurice Gianetto, John O'Hara, Ron Marchildon, Larry Banks, Don McNeer, Vera Dusome, Reg McConkey and Gerry Hewitt.

Prior to the presentation of the awards, banquet spokesman Don Tannahill acknowledged the effort and work put in by the many timekeepers, referees, coaches, managers, trainers and parents.

Junior D House League presentations were made first with Peter Deacon and Jim Junnie receiving an appreciation award for the work they put into running that division.
