Cascar race Monday

Sponsors of the locally owned Number 13 stock car are eagerly looking forward to Victoria Day Monday when their modified Camero will participate in the first race of the Number Seven Cascar Series.

According to George Woods, the race is scheduled for Monday, May 18 at Delaware Speedway and up for grabs will be a purse of $10,000.

Time trials are expected to get underway at 2 p.m. and the top 20 cars logging the fastest time during the two laps of qualifying, will compete for the big money.

Woods noted that times for these races are likely to average in the low twenties, seconds that it, but he was unable to give average times for Midland driver Joey Woods, who will command Number 13 that day.

Last week-end the group took part in Friday night racing at Deleware and in the qualifying heats, Woods drove the Camero to a fourth place finish.

In the feature of the night, the car placed eighth of the 21 cars participating.

Racing in Barrie will get underway for the group this Saturday night at Barrie Speedway beginning at 7 p.m.

The feature is slated to go approximately 9.30 p.m.

Bike-a-thon registration

The Contact Telephone Information and Referral Centre in Midland is a worthwhile and helpful organization but in order to help Midland-Penetanguishene, they must rely on the people of those communities to help them with the needed funds.

To do this, the Contact Centre will be holding their "Big Wheelie" bike-a-thon May 24.

Riders will ride the 20 mile distance for pledges collected from residents of Midland-Penetanguishene, all proceeds going to the Contact Centre's operating funds.

The person collecting the most pledges will receive a $50 dinner for two at Andrea's Restaurant in Midland.

Even if you're not riding, you can still help out by sponsoring one of those people riding in the fund-raising event.

Riders in the bike-a-thon will ride from Midland Secondary School through Tiny Township to the first checkpoint at County Road Six and Concession 11 on to the second checkpoint at Robert Street and Fuller Avenue in Tay Township, finishing up at Little Lake Park.

The bike-a-thon will start at 9 a.m. with a rain date for the event set for May 31.

To ride in the bike-a-thon, you must be registered by later today and you can do that by calling Contact at 526-9333 or Catharine Moore at 526-6973.
