

'Supershow' being organized to climax two week festival

The Penetanguishene area is to have its own festival this summer, courtesy of the Centre d'activites francaises. Festival des Quenouilles, organized by Le Centre d'activites francaises a Penetanguishene, with the participation of other francophone groups, will be held during the week of June 21 to 27, extending into the week of June 28 to July 4, to enable participation in Canada Day festivities and the Penetanguishene Chamber of Commerce's Summerama.

opening of the Cafe de la Cour with entertainment; and, organizers say, the biggest show of its kind Penetanguishene has ever known, a supershow to celebrate Canada Day featuring Robert Paquette, singer; Marie King, country and western; les Sortileges, a dance group; and Ragout, a group specializing in folklore music and instruments on June 26, all at the Penetanguishene

Curling Club. Other activities are foreseen and more details will be made available as soon as they are confirmed, organizers say.

Accident outside shrine week's major accident, police say

In the week ending Monday, only one traffic accident of 11 accidents investigated by the Midland OPP was of any significance, police said Monday.

Investigation into an accident Sunday at the Martyrs' Shrine, involving a car driven by a Penetanguishene man and a car driven by a Midland man, concluded with a charge of careless driving against Leo Ladouceur.

The OPP said that the car driven by Patrick Kearns, 36, of Bowstring Trail, Midland, while stopped on Highway 12 in the passing lane in the process of turning left into the shrine, was struck from behind by a car driven by Ladouceur, 57, of Owen Street, Penetanguishene.

Minor injuries resulted to Kearns three passengers, Anne Kearns, 35, Colleen Kearns, 9, and Heather Kearns, 12, all of Bowstring Trail. Heather Kearns was the only person taken to Huronia District Hospital after the 10:30 a.m. accident.

Of the other 10 accidents investigated in the week by the Midland OPP, two were hit and run property damage accidents in parking lots, one was a fire in a car, and another a non-reportable accident.

A hearty crew of villains

Visitors to Midland's Little Lake Park Saturday were in danger of running into 90 ferocious pirates and their leaders, who under the eyepatches and without the cardboard swords were really area Beavers and Beaver leaders. From left are Beavers Steven Strath, Victoria Harbour; Jason DeGroot, Elmvale; Jason Walker, Elmvale; Bruce Prevett, Penetanguishene B; Ariff Bhimji, 2nd Midland; John Desrochers, Penetanguishene A.
