Trustees made aware of school's needs

Members of Simcoe County Roman Catholic Separate School Board, in recent months, have been made aware of the need to refurbish Our Lady of Lourdes School at Elmvale.

Last week board members were told of a meeting held May 11 between RC board trustees and representatives of concerned parents from the school.

Parents were assured, the long term needs of the school are well understood by the board and have been communicated through appropriate channels to Queen's Park and the Ministry of Education.

A holiday to honor Sir John A.?

City of Kingston would like the Canadian government to establish a national holiday to commemorate Sir John A. Macdonald Day.

The event would pay tribute to Canada's first prime minister. Kingston's request was filed Monday night without comment at a regular meeting of Midland council.

Green light for special events

Midland council, Monday night, gave the green light to Cubs, Scouts, Girl Guides and Brownies to hold a church parade this coming Sunday afternoon from the rear of St. Paul's Church to St. Mark's Church.

Permission was also granted to Midland Rotary Club to stage the club's annual barbecue at the town dock on July 1 and Midland's Business Improvement Area will be allowed to hold its annual sidewalk sale on July 16, 17 and 18.

During the three days King Street will be closed to vehicular traffic from Bay to Elizabeth.

Everyone is welcome.

Children's Department: The Children's Library will be offering free summer programs for young patrons during July and August.

Activities will include a reading program, a film afternoon, arts and crafts, and creative dramatics. We will have more information on dates, times and registration in the next column.

Note from Agnes Markle: It has been one of my duties during the last six or seven years to write the "Library News" for the press, and I would like to thank all concerned for their co-operation and help.

As I was preparing this last column I came across the following poem which says it all - I hope it will induce those who do not have one to come and take out a Library membership - still the greatest bargain in town!

I've travelled the world twice over, Met the famous: saints and sinners,

Poets and artists, kings and queens, Old stars and hopeful beginners,

I've been where no-one's been before, Learned secrets from writers and cooks

All with one library ticket To the wonderful world of books.

This poem is in one of our Large Print Books: From the Ocean to the Sky by Sir Edmund Hillary.
