More than 100 in church parade

by Robin Nutbrown
On Sunday, May 31, a district church parade was held at St. Mark's Anglican Church in Midland.

Over 100 members strong from the Guiding and Scouting movement assembled behind St. Paul's United Church at 1:30 p.m.

At 2 p.m., the group paraded up to the church with music from the Midland Legion Pipe Band.

The church service began at 2:30 p.m. with the presentation of the colours. Greetings were given by Rev. Rod Barlow, the presiding pastor.

The first scripture reading was taken from Acts 1:8-14. Following the scripture reading, Howard Jackson, past district commissioner beautifully sang, "The Boy Scout Hymn".

The second scripture reading was taken from 1 Peter 4:12-19. St. John 17:1-11 was the gospel reading for the day.

Rev. Rod Barlow, Chanlain from first

Midland preached a most enjoyable sermon.

A collection was taken up to help support the World Scout Brotherhood Fund. The Lord's Prayer was said by all.

Rev. Rod Barlow gave the final blessing. Our National Anthem "O Canada" was sung by all. The colours were then paraded out.

Following the annual district church parade, a warm invitation from the Wye Marsh Wildlife

Centre was extended to all.

On behalf of the district, I would like to take this opportunity to thank Rev. Lloyd Delaney, District Chaplain and all those involved for organizing the church parade.

Another alarm-less weekend

For the second weekend in a row members of Midland Fire Department weren't called on to answer an alarm, reports Fire Chief Terry Lethbridge.

The last call firefighters answered was on Friday when they were called out at noon to mop up a gas spill on King Street near Yonge after a visiting bus to the area developed troubles.

Break, enter more costly than theft

The taking of a case of pop from Furnitex Corporation Ltd. on Bay Street, Midland, recently was more expensive than the loss of the soft drink.

The value of the missing pop is $9 but damage to the building committed during the break and entry was $40.

Midland town police were informed of the break and enter last Saturday at 9.50 a.m.
