Lercar downs Duval's second time around

In Penetanguishene Fastball action last Tuesday night in McGuire Park, Lercar Construction defeated Duval's Variety 2-1 for their second victory of the season over that team.

The win gave Lercar first place, having been tied for that position with Duval's prior to last Tuesday's game.

Going into the fourth inning, both pitchers, Mike Puddicombe of Duval's Variety and Alvin Robillard of Lercar Construction were throwing no-hitters but Lercar Construction changed that in the bottom of the fourth.

Mike Dubeau got a walk for Lercar and he was followed by Don Tannahill who hit a triple, driving in Dubeau from first plate.

Bob Valentine followed with a pop fly to centerfield but was caught out, Tannahill coming in on the hit.

Duval's Variety loaded the bases in the fifth inning but Robillard's pitching on the mound for Lercar eliminated that scoring threat.

In the seventh inning, Duval's Variety was down 2-0 but they came on strong.

Mike Puddicombe started things off with single, the next two batters going down in order.

With a man on first, Steve Ladouceur hit a double to right center,

Puddicombe coming in for Duval's only run.

Ben Pauze was next to bat for Duval's but his hit went to the short stop and he was put away to end the game.
