Getting to be habit for Toni Lembo

For the sixth time this year, Toni Lembo of Midland and coach Don Betts of Crestwood Farms in Perkinsfield found themselves accepting champion or reserve championship awards.

Saturday, saw Toni Lembo aboard "Something Ventured" win the Equitation Under Saddle Class. This win placed Toni in a tie for first place in the Junior "B" Equitation Division.

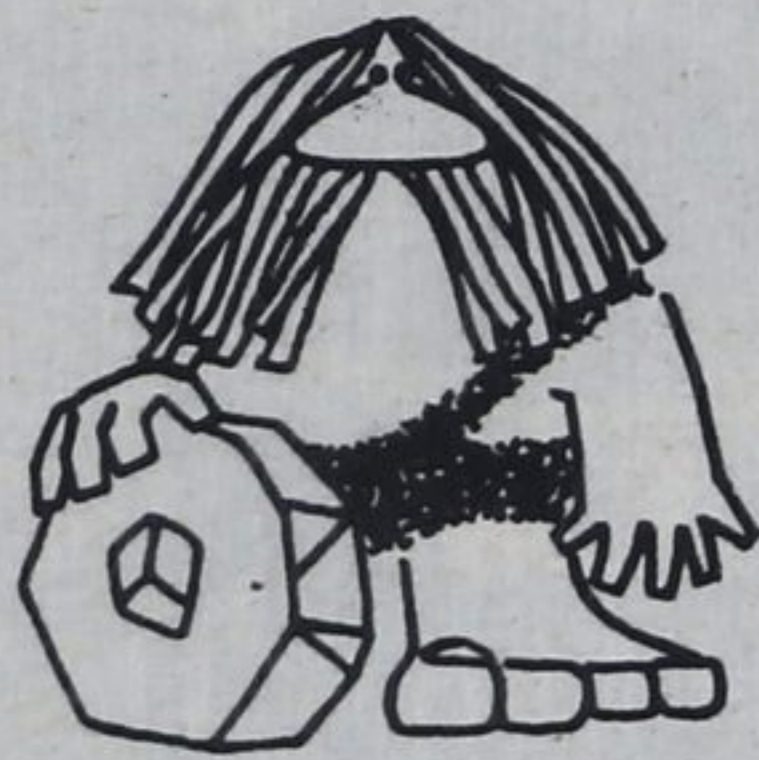

On Sunday, Toni's consistent performances aboard Something Ventured captured second and third place in Over Fence Class plus a second place in the Hunter Over Fences Stake Class.

These wins provided enough points to capture title and awards as Champion of the Aurora Horse in her Division.

Sunday's win was a significant one for Toni, since The Aurora Show is a class one show and the division had 49 entrants. In calculating Ontario standings the riders placing The Show Class and number of entrants determine the points wards.

Another Midland resident Michael Stone, saw paydirt when his horse Eldorado placed second in the prestigious Modified Grand Prix.

Eldorado was ridden by Jim Elder of Aurora, who is a member of the Canadian Team, which won a gold medal at the Alternate Olympics in Rotterdam this past year.
