

Hurons gymnastics day camps starting July 1

by Don Lawrence
The Hurons' Summer Gymnastics Day Camp will be operating this year again at Corpus Christi School in Penetanguishene and should be as successful as last year's.

Part of the reason for the expected success is the return of Marni Ridout of Balm Beach, a physical education and french major at Western University. Ridout ran the program last year with the help of five gymnasts, three of those returning this year. They are Belinda and Brenda Spencer of Lafontaine and Anne Claire Montgomery of Ottawa. Brenda is a student at Ecole Secondaire Penetanguishene Secondary School, Belinda having just graduated from that centre of learning this year and she will be attending Georgian College in the fall.

Employment and Immigration Canada. That grant will pay for salaries and expenses incurred during the program.

The girls teaching the program underwent additional training this past weekend in the Gyro Exchange Program held at Corpus Christi with the visit of 17 gymnasts and two instructors in gymnastics from Toronto.

The Hurons' group will be travelling to Toronto in October for their part of the exchange.

In addition, the Hurons' girls will be attending a clinic this week in which they will also learn some basic first aid and improve on their teaching methods.

There is a limit of 45 gymnasts in each of the two four week camps, the first being held June 29 until July 24 and the second running from July 27 until Aug. 21.

There are still some openings in the morning session for the first camp but the afternoon session is full.

There are, however, a lot of openings still for the second camp.

Morning sessions run from 8:30 a.m. until 12 p.m. with afternoon sessions going from 1 p.m. until 4 p.m. Advanced gymnasts will take part in the morning sessions with beginners getting into action in the afternoon.

Registration fee for the program is $10 and you can register by calling John Turner at 526-6007, Ken St. Amant at 526-3992 or Corpus Christi School at 549-8381.

The worth of the program is reflected in the performances of members of the Hurons Gymnastics Club who have taken the program and improved their finishes throughout their competitive season.

Outstanding chaplain

Still time to register for Midland-Penetang day camps

There is still time for local children to register for the day camps planned for Midland and Penetanguishene.

Midland's program will start July 6 and will be open to children eight years old and up. It will conclude Aug. 28.

There will be four sessions, each two weeks in length with a $10 registration fee.

The program will be held in Little Lake Park or in Midland Civic Centre if rain appears.

Participants will learn about such activities as canoeing, tennis, volleyball, soccer, softball, hiking and beach games.

The emphasis of this program is to have fun and to be active.

Registration is done by phoning or dropping in at Midland Civic Centre between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. on weekdays.

Penetanguishene will also be having day camp sessions, those beginning July 13.

Dates for the first session will be July 13 until July 24 with the second camp running from Aug. 10 until Aug. 21.

There will also be an optional sleepout for those interested.

Registration fee for these camps is set at $15 per child with deadlines for registration being June 30 for the first camp and July 27 for the second camp.

More information can be obtained by calling the municipal offices at 549-7453.

Sports down Barrie

Elmvale Sporting Goods played a total of five games in regular season play last week, the last of which was a home game against Barrie Floor and Wall.

In that match the local squad squeezed by Barrie for a 2-1 win.

The Sports scored in the opening inning when Paul Craddock singled, stole second, went to third on a pass ball and was sent home on a sacrifice fly by Paul Archer.

Sporting Goods players led the game by a 1-0 margin at that point.

A home run launched by Jim Angus of Barrie Floor and Wall evened the score in the second inning but the Elmvale men went ahead to stay in the fifth when Chuck Jordan tripled and scored on a bunt by Paul Craddock.

Greg Giffen was the winning pitcher and was also selected as player of the game for giving up just three hits in all.
