

Photographer's notebook

A visit to Camp Monitomono

Part of obstacle course

Cari Beardsall of Midland crosses the rope bridge at Camp Monitomono. The bridge is part of an obstacle course that youngsters staying at the summer camp in Tay Township run once they start their stay and once again before they leave.

Following directions

Daniel German washes the sand off his legs under the direction of Melissa Nieuwhof at Camp Monitomono, a Knox Presbyterian Church-sponsored summer camp in Tiny Township. Both German and Nieuwhof are from Midland.

One of camp's games

Paul Haskill, of Midland, takes part in a game of tether ball at Camp Monitomono, a church camp for young boys and girls located in a rural area of Tay Township.

ELMVALE'S 2ND ANNUAL HATS OFF

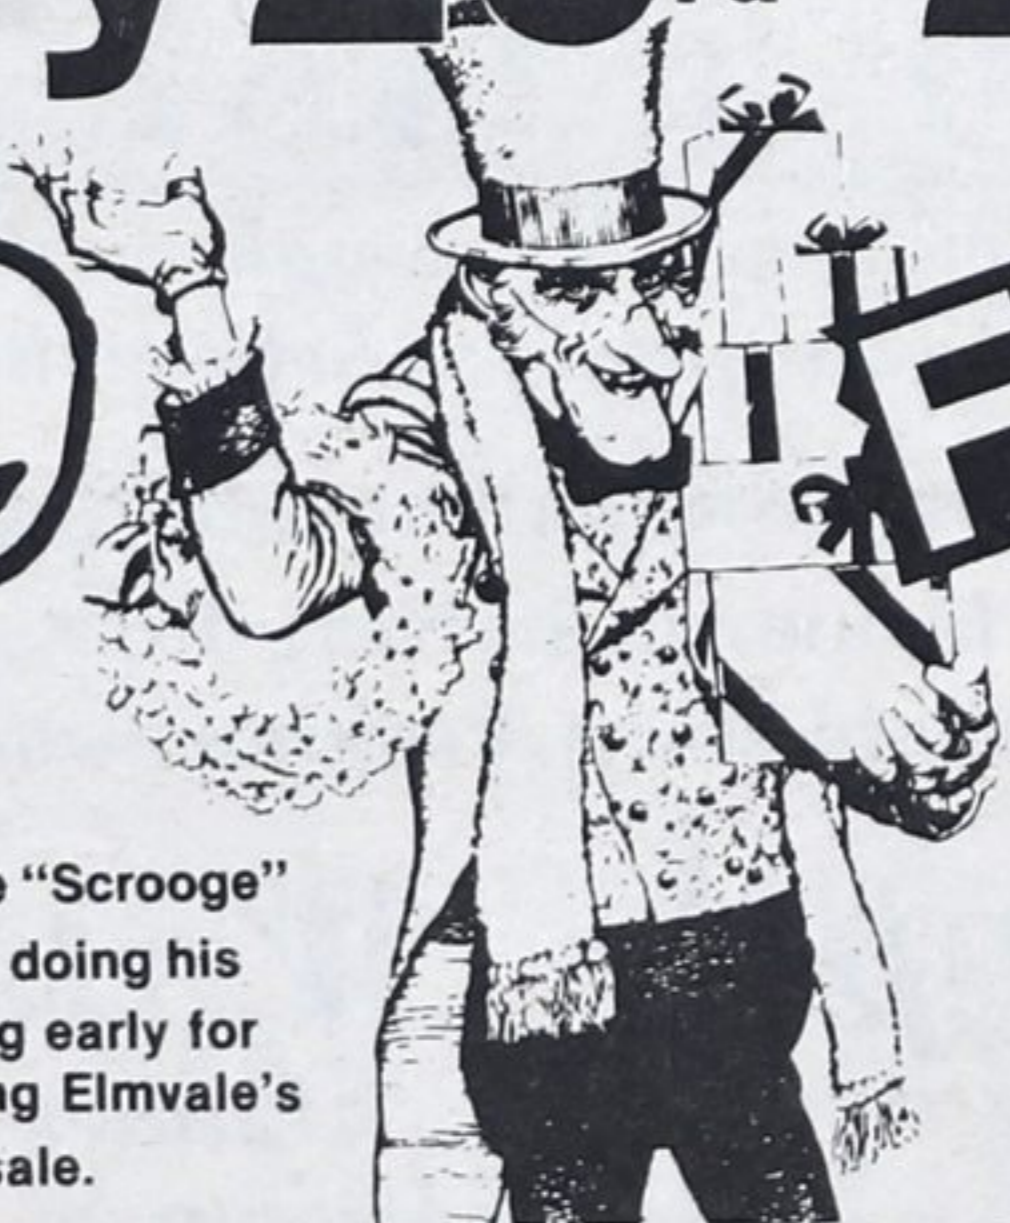

SIDEWALK SALE

July 23rd to 25th

BIGGER AND BETTER THAN LAST YEAR

- BARGAINS GALORE • DISPLAYS
- CLOWNS • REFRESHMENTS
- FUN FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY
- DANCE-FIT DEMONSTRATIONS THURS. EVE. & SAT.
- RED LIGHT SPECIALS HOURLY
- PONY RIDES AND ANIMALS FROM ELMVALE JUNGLE ZOO
- INFORMATION BOOTHS • DRAWS
- GIVE-A-WAYS • BALLOONS • LEMONADE

Come and meet the "Scrooge" of Elmvale. He'll be doing his Christmas shopping early for great savings during Elmvale's hats-off sidewalk sale.

Free Merchants slashing prices daily and remaining open 'til 10 p.m. Thurs. & Fri.

Sponsored by the Elmvale Merchants and the Elmvale and District Chamber of Commerce