Medal winners

Local athletes performed well at the Special Olympics in Ottawa this past week, finishing in the medal standings. From left: Perry Stewart of ARC who competed in the bowling; Cindy Cruise of Huron Park who won three gold medals and a bronze in track and field; Bernard Moreau of Huron Park who won a silver medal and two bronze in swimming; and Leo Prisque of ARC who won four gold medals and one silver in swimming.

The Gold Rush

The Klondike Gold Rush of 1896-98 brought a few turbulent years Dawson was a brash and colourful city where thousands of fortune seekers from around the world to the Yukon. For fortunes were often made and lost in days.

Injured knee not a deterrent

Despite an injured left knee, Jim Stacey, part of a group from Farlane Lake, took to the water this week behind the Penetanguishene Mental Health Centre for the entertainment of Mental Health Centre patients.

Nancy Bell turns in good game for win

You could say it was Nancy Bell Night, Monday during a ladies intermediate softball game played between Penetanguishene Juveniles and Midland-Therrien's in Penetanguishene.

By the time the dust had settled, Penetanguishene had won the contest 14-4 thanks to the sharp pitching of Penetanguishene's Nancy Bell who struck out no fewer than eight Midland batters.

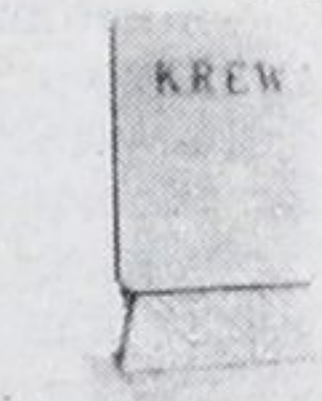

The game was evenly matched in the first inning when neither club managed to plate a run. However Penetanguishene got on the scoreboard in the second with a run, added three more in the third, four in the fourth and six in the sixth.

Midland picked up runs in the third inning and three more in the sixth in the seven-inning affair.

The victory went to Nancy Bell while Norma Jean Lediard was tagged with the loss.
