Duval's fastballers make it easy...

Going into the last week of play in Penetanguishene Duval's Fastball Variety have assured themselves of a first place finish.

Duval's have won 11 games, lost four and have collected no ties for 22 points and they are a full seven points ahead of the second place team, Lercar Construction.

Lercar Construction has won seven games, lost six and gained one tie for 15 points.

The Pass, as sponsored by Commodore Hotel in Penetanguishene, has split their season so far with seven wins, seven losses and no ties for 14 points.

Caswell's Antiques are next with five wins, nine losses and no tie for 11 points while Penetang Sand and Gravel is last with four wins, eight losses and two ties for 10 points.

Action continued last night in Penetanguishene's McGuire Park with Penetang Sand and Gravel trying to stay alive for the playoffs as they took on the league leaders, Duval's Variety.

The other game last night was between The Pass and Lercar Construction.

The results for both these games were too late for press time.
