

Wye Marsh center of activity

Wye Marsh Wildlife Interpretation Centre in Midland will be holding some special events for the remainder of this month and the whole of August.

On Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 10 a.m., there will be free canoe excursions, guided by a professional naturalist.

Reservations can be made for these excursions by calling 526-7809.

There will be free guided nature walks at 2:30 p.m. and nature demonstrations from 2 p.m. until 4 p.m., those place seven days a week.

Also for your pleasure, there will be the regular features which include the indoor display hall with a computer game and quiz, an active bee hive, aquariums with turtles and mudpuppies, a special interest area and wetland, woodland and field displays.

The theatre will be operating again with slide shows and movies and the trails will be open seven days a week all year round.

Wye Marsh is open from Victoria Day to Labour Day from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m., from Labour Day until Thanksgiving Day from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m.

There is no charge for admission to the site.

Impaired charges mounting

As of yesterday morning, Midland town police had laid more charges of impaired driving this year than they laid in all of 1980, Chief of Police Ernie Bates said.

As of yesterday Midland town police had laid 56 charges of impaired driving. In all of 1980 the town police laid 52 charges of impaired driving.

The Midland OPP report that up to July 23, 1980, Midland OPP officers stopped and arrested 125 drivers and brought them to the station detachment to take a breathalyzer test.

In the same period this year the Midland OPP officers have arrested and brought 198 drivers to the detachment to take a breathalyzer test.
