

It must be summer...new Bell phone books, all 116,844 being delivered in district

The 1981 edition of the telephone directory for Barrie, Orillia, Collingwood, Midland and area becomes available beginning this week.

Norma McCall, local Bell manager said 116,844 directories will be scheduled to be completed by Aug. 13.

Front and back covers show architectural styles of housing across the top and six panels with people using different models of telephones.

Inside, there is a section outlining how the Telecommunications Centre for Special Needs in Toronto can be contacted as well as where the new Phonecentre is located and what services are available. Government listings, the Blue Pages at the back, have been expanded and are now set up in two parts: Services and Offices.

The Services section provides an alphabetical list of various Government services and, in most cases, the level of government is listed for convenience.

The offices section retains the more traditional format of offices, listed in this sequence: municipal, provincial and federal.

There is also a new Area Code map for Canada and the United States.

Bell is continuing its policy of one directory per customer. Anyone who does not receive a copy should call the local Bell Canada business office after the delivery period.

Special dinner cost town $299.83

The cost to Penetanguishene taxpayers of the town holding an appreciation night for Brian Orser, a native son and reigning Canadian Men's Figure Skating Champion, was $299.83.

Slightly over $1,000 worth of tickets were sold. Other revenue came from tickets for Tiny Township, and from the local Chamber of Commerce and the local Canadian Legion.
