

Long awaited guide

Contact Centre Administrator Irene Quesnelle, left, and Administrative Assistant Marion Reed, right, are obviously pleased with the new Children's Services Resource Guide as put out by Simcoe County's Children's Services Planning Committee. The book is the product of two years of research and includes chapters on where to get help with family support, group homes, mental retardation and many other important interests for those working with children. The 323 page book is available at Contact for $10.

And you think you were busy?

June turned out to be a busy month for officials associated with the Huronia Animal Control Centre under animal control officer Peter Bidan.

During June no fewer than 114 complaints were investigated by the centre during patrols in Midland.

A total of 18 animals were returned or redeemed while three cats and dogs were humanely destroyed, Bidan's report shows.
