Lamers-Scott wedding

The marriage took place at St. Margaret's Church in Midland Saturday, July 11 of Jane Egbertha Theodora Lamers daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Lamers of Midland and Phillip Mark Scott of Orillia, son of Mrs. George Scott of Timmins.

Father Sullivan officiated at the wedding mass.

Given in marriage by her mother and father, the bride wore a nylon sheer organza dress, with lace bodice and pearl trim. Her full flowing skirt held a cathedral train trimmed in beads and lace and her head dress consisted of a pearl tiara with a nylon illusion fingertip veil.

Maid of honour for the occasion was Susan

Lamers of Midland and bridesmaids were Susan Power of Midland and Debbie Scott and Lisa Schiratti, both of Timmins. They wore full length gowns of polyester in apricot shades with spaghetti straps on the bodice and a soft bolero draped over their shoulders. Their skirts had a tulip hemline.

Best man during the ceremony was Alfie Cevraini of Sudbury and ushers were Danny Lamers of Midland, Marco Lia of Timmins and Carlo Povan of Brockville.

Soloist for the ceremony was Linda Cox of Midland and organist was Pat Garraway of Midland. The reception was held at the Athenian Hall with Jim Park of Penetanguishene acting as master of ceremonies.

The couple made their honeymoon trip to Lake Placid New York and Niagara Falls and will reside in Orillia.

Out-of-town guests came from Penetanguishene, Parry Sound, Collingwood, New Lowell, Sudbury, Timmins, Mississauga, Orillia, Chatham, Ayton, Beamville, Victoria B.C., Angus, London, Holland Landing, Barrie, Sarnia, Toronto, Grand Prairie Alberta, Glencairn, Ivy, Calgary Alberta and Waubaushene.

Waverley

All winners

by Cindy Lockhart
Congratulations to Paul and Dianne Lesperance who were big winners on Wintario last Thursday evening.

The Party Paks lost Friday night 24-11 to Wyebridge. On Saturday night the game in Toanche was called a tie because of rain.

The next game will be held on Sunday August 30 in Wyevale. This tournament is the final wrap up of the season.

The winner of all games on Sunday is the winner of the season. Waverley's game is at 12.00 noon against Wyebridge.

A surprise baby shower was held in honour of Michael Scott, son of Pat and Brian Scott on Sunday evening at the home of Ron and Anne Leonard.

A special surprise to Michael was a miniature Party Pak T-shirt. Also a special presentation to Marg Armstrong of a Party Pak T-shirt, for all her work at the booth on game night.

Special thanks Marg from all the "Party Paks."

Thanks to all who attended the beef barbecue dinner Saturday evening at the Community Centre.

Hope you all enjoyed your meal. Special thanks to all who donated pies and worked.

Congratulations to Michael Flynn of Barrie who was the lucky winner of the beef.
