

Agincourt man charged

A two car collision Saturday afternoon at the intersection of William and Yonge Streets resulted in charges for an Agincourt man report Midland town police.

Charged with failure to yield was Gordon Laughlin, 61, of Agincourt.

According to police, Laughlin was eastbound on Yonge Street when his vehicle collided with a car driven by Bernard Oakes, 63, of Everton Drive in Midland, who was southbound on William.

Damage to the Laughlin car was set at $300 while the Oakes vehicle sustained $500 damage.

Boat stolen from Little Lake Park

A boat and motor, valued at $568 was reported stolen from the dock at Little Lake Park Sunday morning and the boat was later recovered half sunk in another part of the lake, minus its motor and equipment.

According to Midland town police, the 14 foot aluminum craft was owned by George Holt of Midland and was parked at its usual spot at the dock when it was discovered missing around 7:55 a.m. Sunday.

The $250 boat was later recovered but the 5.5 h.p. Evinrude motor and some equipment left in the vessel is still missing.

Police are continuing their investigation.

If the shoe fits...

Chances are there are a few people out there walking around in new shoes as a result of a break, enter and theft that occurred late Friday or early Saturday at Georgian Footwear in Victoria Harbour.

Midland OPP report, entry was gained to the building by forcing open a window and that at least 25 pairs of shoes, boots and a quantity of suede leather skins were stolen.
