

Equestrian sensation

Toni Lembo has a habit of winning, and winning, and...

Crestwood Farms coach Don Betts, can look back on the 1981 equestrian show season with a great deal of satisfaction.

Bett's rider Toni Lembo of Midland, and her horses "Prize Jive" and "Something Ventured" finished strong.

Firstly at the Cheltenham International Gold Cup Show, Toni Lembo and "Prize Jive" captured the division championship.

Then again at the CNE Horse Show, this time indoors, Toni and "Prize Jive" proved to be the combination to beat, again taking the championship.

Out of a total of 20 possible points the two captured 13, making them the highest scorers in the division which saw over 80 riders competing.

"Something Ventured" and Toni also captured a third place.

For the season the Crestwood group has done exceedingly well. Coach Bett's combination of rider Lembo and horses "Prize Jive" and "Something Ventured" have captured six championships and three reserve championships.

With the 1981 season barely over the Crestwood Farms' coach is looking forward to the 1982 season in the Junior Division; and to Crestwood's latest edition "Mr. Lincoln".

"Mr. Lincoln", a five-year-old quarterhorse, while new to the showing game has already shown his mettle winning a number of classes in the green division.
