Horse ride-a-thon set for Sat. to raise funds for March of Dimes

Saturday, Sept. 19 is going to be a big day for the Ontario March of Dimes in Barrie.
On that day a Horse Ride-A-Thon from Stayner to Barrie will be raising money to help the disabled in Barrie.

In addition to the Ride-a-Thon, a car wash and wheelchair obstacle course will be run at the finish point, Allandale AMC Essa Road.

Times for the events at Allandale AMC are from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

with the Horse-a-Thon expected to finish about 1:30-2:00 p.m.

The public is invited to come and take part. While having their car washed, patrons can try out the obstacle course or take a look at how hand controls assist a disabled person to drive.

The goal for this event is $8,000 and we need your help in order to reach that goal. The Ontario March of Dimes is a non-profit charitable organization which helps disabled adults reach their potential by helping supply not only appliances such as wheelchairs and artificial limbs, but also retraining programs and encouragement.
