Dr. and Mrs. Paul Denbeigh (nee Elizabeth DeGorter) are home from Calgary, Alta. where they have resided since their marriage three years ago.

The new Flos W.I. met on Tues. afternoon, Sept. 8 at the home of Mrs. Gerald King of Barrie. Nine members and three guests were present. Mrs. Jim Kennedy opened the meeting with the Ode and everyone repeated the Mary Stewart Collect.

Name a song popular in your teenage years, and bring an item for the Tweedsmuir history book was the roll call.

The secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Alex Finlay, read the minutes and the financial statement. A thank-you note was read from Mrs. Sam Allen, now a resident of the Huronia Guest Home in Stayner.

Mrs. Terry Loftus and Mrs. Harold Smith have volunteered to attend the 4-H training school in Elmvalle on, Which Came First, the Chicken or the Egg?

Two members will also attend the quilting workshop to be held in Elmvalle on Thursday, Oct. 29 and Thurs. Nov. 5. It too will be at the office of the ministry of agriculture and food and will be from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. both days.

Out October meeting will be held a week earlier than usual and will be at the Simcoe County Museum on Tues. Oct. 6 at 1:30 p.m.

Entertaining our sister branch at the November meeting on The Year of the Disabled was discussed.

Mrs. Cline Rawn, the convener of Tweedsmuir History who presided for the program, asked everyone to comment on the motto, Remember the past, keep records of the present and dream of the future.

Mrs. Archie Wanless read an article entitled, The Comeback of the Quilt.

Mrs. Rawn outlined the history of the coloured settlers in Oro Township and made special reference to the African church which was recently damaged by vandals. She also talked about the Drury homestead which is at the site of the upcoming International Ploughing Match.

Mrs. Kenney then conducted an interesting contest on, The Contents of your Purse. The ladies were divided into two teams and the winning team was the one which first displayed the articles on Mrs. Kenneys list.

A draw donated by Mrs. Elmer Atkinson was won by Mrs. John Minnings.

The meeting closed with O Canada and following the W.I. Grace, a delicious lunch
