Kings host Blues tonight

Penetanguishene Jr. C Kings hockey club will be trying for their third straight win in exhibition play, tonight, when they take to the ice in Penetanguishene for an 8:30 p.m. game against the Bradford Blues of the Mid-Ontario Jr. C. hockey league.

The Kings recorded two wins this past weekend over a team from Buffalo, New York, 9-4 and 9-8.

This will be the last game situation for the Kings before they begin the 1981-82 hockey season, Oct. 2, with an away game against Huntsville Huskies.

Their first home game will be Oct. 4 in Penetanguishene Arena, that game against their cross-town rivals, Midland Centennials. Game time for that match is set at 7:30 p.m.

Escapes quick elimination

Elmvale Sporting Goods escaped quick elimination from the Barrie and District Inrmediate A championship finals Tuesday by downing Barrie Floor and Wall 3-1.

It was Elmvale's first victory of the best-of-seven series. They now trail three games to one after dropping each of the first three games by 1-0 scores.

Gary Turner put Elmvale on the board in the first inning by doubling in Carl Edwards. The score remained 1-0 until the sixth when Paul Archer knocked in Tim McGinnis with another double. Archer then came home when Brent Fleming's drive was mishandled.

Barrie showed signs of life in the bottom of the sixth, coming up with one run, but Elmvale starter Edwards managed to put a lid on the threat.

Edwards allowed only three hits and struck out six batters to lead Elmvale, the league's regularseason champs. Elmvale batters connected for four hits off Barrie hurler Bill Frechette.

Fifth game of the series was set for last night in Elmvale, but results were unavailable at press time.
