MGCC ladies' awards presented

Midland Golf and Country Club's ladies' section capped off a successful season Sept. 22 with an awards ceremony and closing dinner meeting.

Top award, ladies' club championship, went to Angela Whetham. Other trophies went to Marilyn Richmond, senior champion; Ruth Rowland, Haig handicap winner; Joan Lavin, flag competition; Shirley Stokes, eclectic competition; and partners Aileen Moreau and Helen Griffin, better-ball competition champs.

Among the low handicappers, Marilyn Richmond scored the most birdies over the season. Helen Griffin was recognized for most pars in the higher handicap bracket.

Mandy Tannahill was the only lady to score a hole-in-one this year.

Also announced was the ladies' section executive for 1982. Members are: Kay Lapere, president; Shirley Stokes, vice-president; Helen Griffin, secretary-tr-

asurer; Betty Moss, golf captain; Aileen Moreau, vice-captain; Eileen Denny and Ruth Smith, handicap committee; Jean Hartman, Rosemarie

Tannahill, and Belle McKee, hospitality committee; Joan Hack, Joan Lavin and Marilyn Richmond, Golf committee players representatives.

MSS senior girls win tourney

The Midland Secondary School senior girls basketball team continued their powerful roll Saturday by winning the Elmira High School Basketball Tournament.

The squad, undefeated this season, whipped Woodstock 44-24 and Fergus 47-10 to gain a berth in the tournament final.

Angie Pumputis led her club to the championship by netting 10 points in a 39-17 victory over the host Elmira team. Caroline Meech added eight points to the Midland drive and Tina Lehr contributed an outstanding defensive effort.

In exhibition play last Thursday, the Midland senior girls hammered host Collingwood Collegiate Institute 61-31. Tracey Vent and Carolyn Meech scored 14 points each to top MSS scorers.

The other Midland teams did their bit the same day; the Junior squad led by Lori Chambers' 14-point effort to a 41-25 win over Collingwood, and the Midgets scoring a 38-25 win with a 12-point day for Linda Ferraro.

Therrien's trim Adco

Bob Lappin pitched a shutout to help his club back into the thick of the Olympia Fastball League finals as Therrien's Furniture blanked Adco Tire 2-0 at Midland's Main Diamond Monday.

With the win, Therrien's trimmed Adco's lead in the best-of-seven final series to two games to one.

Therrien's scored both runs in the top of the fourth inning.

Fourth game in the series was scheduled for last night, but results were unavailable at press time.
