It's getting to be a habit for MSS girls' basketball!

On Friday night (Oct. 2) and Saturday afternoon (Oct. 3) MSS Senior Girls Basketball team competed in the Sir John A. MacDonald Lady Black Scot Tournament in Toronto. This was a 16 team tournament and involved several of Toronto's best senior teams.

Friday night MSS defeated Lester B. Pearson S.S. - 50-24. In MSS's first game Saturday, MSS showed some offensive power defeating West Toronto S.S. 60-48.

Angie Pumpulis scored 16 points and Tracey Vent added 23 points in this game.

In the tournament semi-final, Kelly Edwards scored 17 points and led Midland to a 46-33 victory over George Harvey S.S.

This got MSS into the finals, against Parkside Colligate.

All the girls played well, but Angie Pumpulis had an outstanding game, scoring 28 points in leading MSS to a 59-42 win.

Angie was awarded the trophy for most valuable player in the tournament and both she and Tracey Vent were named to the tournament All-Star team.

MSS Seniors now have a record of 11 wins and 0 losses on the season, and have won two tournaments.

Meanwhile last Thursday, MSS Junior Girls won their eighth decision of the season.

An exhibition game between MSS and Penetang resulted in a 56-24 win for MSS.

Yesterday the MSS Midget Girls Basketball team was defeated by Penetanguishene 26-20 in its last exhibition game.

MSS first home game will be here tomorrow against Penetanguishene.

ESPSS tennis players impressive in qualifying

Tennis players at Ecole Secondaire Penetanguishene Secondary School certainly put in good performances at the GBSSA Zone 3 Tennis qualifying rounds recently.

Three players qualified for GBSSA finals to be held in Orillia Wednesday and they are Anne, Jane and Lisa Merkley.

Anne and Jane Merkley teamed up to win the girls' doubles championship round and the team of Sharon Bellehumeur and Bonnie Geere won the consolation round.

In boys' doubles, it was Perry Beausoleil and Dave Robillard winning the consolation championship.

Dave Atkinson narrowly lost out in the semi-finals of boys' singles' action.

Lisa Merkley finished second overall in girls' singles and Lisa Bourgeois finished a close third.

In mixed doubles, Andrew Bayfield and Lisa Vivian came in third overall.

Gamna bowlers unbeaten

Gamna Signs remain the only unbeaten squad in the Midland Industrial Bowling League after last week's play.

Gamna picked up three more wins in Eastern Division competition last Wednesday, giving them 12 for the season and 25 points.

Quality Carpet trail in the East by seven points, and Commodore Hotel holds third with 13 points.

Garner's Sports maintained their lead in the Western Division, winning two games and picking up three points to stay three ahead of the pack.

Ladouceur Construction, Huronia Auto Glass and Legion Gold are all tied in second with 12 points apiece.

Bob Duquette bowled a 370 to win the day's Summer's Trophies High Single Award.

Maurice Lacroix rolled 792 for the high triple of the day, 28 better than runner-up Maurice Lapensee.

Jules Marion was third with 755.

Jack Bowen continued his grip on the season's high average, dropping to 251 but staying 10 ahead of J. P. Desroches. Lapensee is in third place with a 239 average.
