The cubs and scouts do not sell the apples. They present the delicious, Canadian-grown fruit to every contributor in return for his or her donation. A tag will also be given to show that a person has helped the scouting movement.

Special congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Garneau of Port McNicoll on their 60th Wedding Anniversary. A special Mass for the couple took place at Sacred Heart Church, Port McNicoll, on Saturday.

Father Vincent Egan officiated, assisted by Monsignor Balanger who was altar boy when Marguerite and Gerard Garneau were married back in 1921. On this occasion, Billy Scott was altar boy.

Medals from the Archbishop of Toronto, G. Emmett, and Cardinal Carter were blessed and presented to the couple during Mass.

A reception followed in the Church Hall, hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Leo Copeland and Dr. Reg Sauve and his wife Terry, who came all the way from Calgary for this special occasion.

Allan McLean, M.P.P. for Simcoe East and his wife Marjorie were guests. Mr. McLean presented the couple with a plaque from Premier Davis along with his personal congratulations.

Reeve John Moreau presented a plaque from the Village Council along with his and their personal congratulations. He was also asked by the Warden of Simcoe County, John Fennell, who was unable to attend, to present the Garneaux with a County certificate and heartiest congratulations.

A Mass was offered for the couple by their friends and neighbours on Simcoe Avenue, to take place Oct. 25 at 10 a.m.

Leo Copeland had the honor of passing on to the couple a certificate from Prime Minister Trudeau, a letter from Joe Clarke and a certificate from M.P. Doug Lewis.

About 95 guests attended the celebration—out of town guests from Whitby, Oshawa, Toronto and Windsor. Dr. Talbot made the toasts.

Blitz
The chocolate bar blitz the Port Brownies and Girl Guides had on Saturday to raise funds for their organization didn't go as well as expected.

The chairman of the Mothers' Group Committee, Rosemary Thompson, is optimistic though that they will be able to sell the remaining bars. If you wish to help out in the sale—perhaps by bringing a case of the bars to work—your help would certainly be appreciated. The chocolate bars are $2 or two for $3.

The Mothers' Group wish to extend their thanks to all the drivers who helped out on Saturday. They are also quite pleased at the good turnout of the girls. There will be a Mothers' Group Committee meeting tonight at the Community Centre at 8:30 p.m.

Buildings consumed

The prompt action of volunteers from the Waubashene (Tay Twp.) Fire Department, Saturday evening, is credited with preventing a small garage fire from spreading to a nearby home at Caswell's Beach.

According to Fire Chief Tom O'Hara, the building was engulfed by flames by the time the first few firefighters arrived upon the scene.

Smoke-eaters, battling stiff winds, were able to control the fire before it could do more serious damage.

Meanwhile, according to Port McNicoll's Fire Chief Gord Duggan, his men extinguished a garage fire around noon on Saturday. No other details surrounding that fire were available at press time.

Robert Service show

The ghost of Canadian poet Robert Service come alive is promised to the audience that attends a one man theatrical show, A Taste Of Robert Service, in Elmvale on Oct. 28.

Hayter, a professional actor from Toronto, has been doing his Robert Service show for 10 years.

The show is based on the life, times, and works of Service. The audience will hear the well known Cremation of Sam McGee, and The Shooting of Dan McGrew.

The free, hour-long program starts at 7:30 p.m. in the Flos-Elmvale Public Library.

Runaway trailer

A bicyclist riding on the sidewalk beside King Street in Midland early Saturday afternoon was injured when he was hit from behind by a runaway trailer.

Midland town police say that James Mitchell, 31, of 550 King Street, was southbound in front of his residence when a trailer that came loose from the car pulling it jumped the road onto the sidewalk and hit him from behind.

The driver of the southbound car, Ralph Lawton, 48, of Mississauga, has been charged with not wearing a seatbelt, and towing a trailer not bearing a licence plate.

Mitchell's injury was minor, according to the police report.
