Hillsdale Church scene of Johnston-Lockhart wedding

Bouquets of shades of pink and white flowers complimenting the shades of the gowns worn by members of the bridal party, decorated Hillsdale United Church for the Aug. 22nd wedding of LUCINDA MAUREEN LOCKHART and THOMAS CLARK JOHNSTON of Dalston.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Lockhart of Hillsdale.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose an old-fashioned traditional gown of nylon sheer over tafetta, fashioned with a scooped neckline and bishop sleeves. Ruffles of sheer and lace adorned the long and full chapel train. The bodice and front skirt were trimmed with lace and pearls. A tiara of matching lace and pearls held the bride's 3 tiered veil of tulle illusion. She carried a cascading bouquet of dusty rose roses, light pink roses, white spotted orchid, lily of the valley, surrounded by baby's breath.

Bridal Attendants: Four of the bride's sisters were among the attendants: Lorraine Hupponen was matron of honour and Lois Shanahan, Lynda Shanahan, Lorna Riddell, along with Cheryl Partridge, Valerie Stones, Marie Quinlan, Dianne-Lynn Crowther and Laura Johnston, the bridegroom's sister.

Flower girls were the bridegroom's nieces- Angela Bidwell, Cheri-

Lynn Johnston, along with Kimberly Shanahan, the bride's niece.

The ringbearers were the bride's nephews: Jason Shanahan, Ryan Hupponen, along with Jason Bidwell, the bridegroom's nephew. The attendants wore identical Grecian-styled gowns of dusty rose jersey, fashioned with long matching lace jackets.

The attendants each carried six pale pink long-stemmed roses, surrounded by baby's breath.

The flower girls wore identical light pink gowns of nylon sheer over tafetta trimmed with pink ruffles, lace and dusty rose ribbons.

The flower girls each carried white baskets of pale, pink roses, lily of the valley, pink daisies surrounded by baby's breath.

The bridegroom and the ringbearers wore identical dusk blue tuxedos. The best man, ushers and junior ushers wore identical navy tuxedos.

A friend of the bridegroom, Doug Partridge was Best Man. Three of the bridegroom's brothers were ushers: Bill Johnston, Peter Johnston and Jim Johnston, along with Corey Wursten, Gary McLean, Gary Sommers, Steve Miller and Scot Brown.

The junior ushers were Corey Shanahan and Derrick Shanahan, nephews of the bride.

The bride's mother entered the church on the arms of her grandsons Corey and Derrick Shanahan. She wore a light pink gown of nylon sheer with a matching lace jacket.

The Wedding Song, The Rose and O Perfect Love were sung by Beverly Moors, the bridegroom's niece.

The Reverend Ivan Dambrowitz of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in Hillsdale officiated at the ceremony.

Mr. Harm Wursten of

Stroud was the organist. Leaving for her wedding trip to the East Coast, the bride wore a flowered crepe sundress with a navy background. A matching jacket and accessories completed her attire.

Guests came from Ottawa, London, Kingston, Moncton, N.B., Nanaimo, B.C., Toronto, Detroit, and the surrounding localities.

The couple will reside in Dalston, Ontario.

Just one alarm in Tiny

Tiny Township firefighters, according to Fire Chief Guy Maurice, responded to just one call over the weekend.

That alarm was to snuff out a leaf fire at Cook's Lake on Sunday.

A leaf fire that got out of hand at Little Lake Park was extinguished by Midland firefighters shortly after 5 p.m., Friday.

And local smoke-eaters were summoned to Greening-Donald, Sunday at 7:14 a.m.

Turns out the alarm had been set off after a sprinkler started to fluctuate. There was no fire, reports Fire Chief Terry Lethbridge.
