

Ship has new owner

by Carol Crawford

Paquet Cruises has bought the T.S.S. Statendam from Holland America Cruises.

According to Paquet, the ship - which will be re-named in the next several months - will most likely enter service from a U.S. port sometime in December, 1982. The Statendam will join the Mermox, flagship of Paquet Cruises, which offers winter cruises from Miami and summer voyages in the Mediterranean and Baltic seas, the Azur and Massalia, also under French flag, which cruise year round in the Mediterranean.

In addition, Paquet has management responsibilities for the Dolphin, which is in year round service to the Bahamas from Miami, and the 1981 Panama Canal and Alaska cruises by the World Renaissance.

In RIGHT PHOTO workmen on the church's roof see that the steeple is sitting just right. Rev. Jim Frost says the church should be open for a service before Christmas.

Guiding News, Views

by Christine Brush

As promised, here is the second column in the series on Guiding in Midland. As Public Relations Officer for Rocky Shores District, I am aware of the need for better communication between us and the general public but also between the parents of the girls and the leaders.

Why not arrange to visit your daughter's Unit with her sometime, maybe a craft night when an extra pair of hands is always appreciated.

This year Rocky Shores District is entering a float in the Christmas Parade. Though still in the planning stages it sounds promising. Let's all pull together and make it a success.

As usual the Guides, Brownies, Pathfinders and Rangers were asked to participate in the Remembrance Day Parade. I wish to thank the Legion for inviting us to participate and for providing the girls with a snack afterwards.
