Wyevale

by Jeanne Webb

Mr. and Mrs. Charles King were happily surprised on Nov. 10, when 30 or more friends and relatives swarmed in. The happy occasion for Blanche and Charlie was their 50th wedding anniversary. The community presented them with a money tree. The lovely plant they will be able to keep, and the money will be put to good use, no doubt. A tasty lunch was served. It was an enjoyable evening, in spite of the surprise snowfall.

In the Orange Centre on Nov. 7, a party and dance was held in honour of Charlie and Blanche King. The family and many friends gathered to help them celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary. They received many lovely gifts. Everyone reported a good time.

It seems as though J.M. Schneider Inc., Kitchener, puts out more than quality food. Several people from Wyevale thoroughly enjoyed hearing The Schneider Male Chorus in the Presbyterian Church, Elmvalle, last Saturday evening. Harold Henderson of Wyevale, who sang with the group for many years, was the sponsor from here.

Congratulations to Mrs. Jean Webb, who has become a grandmother to twins early last Sunday morning.

No Name Brand as yet. Plans are progressing well for the big bazaar to be held Nov. 28, sponsored by the Wyevale Recreation Committee.
