SCOUTING AROUND

by Robin Nutbrown

In this month's issue of Provincial Notes, there was an article about the recipients of the "Silver Acorn Investiture."

Howard Jackson, our past district commissioner was one of the eight Scouters who were recognized for "Especially Distinguished Service to Scouting."

The Silver Acorn was awarded at an investiture conducted by the Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, The Honourable John B. Aird, at Queen's Park on Sept. 18, 1981.

Howard Jackson has been a resident of Midland for four years and has been a great asset to Scouting in South Georgian Bay District.

Our congratulations to you Howard!

On November 27, 28 & 29, South Georgian Bay District will be holding their first patrol leader and assistant patrol leader workshop at Camp Wilderman.

This is a leadership training weekend for the Scouts.

Purpose of the workshop is to provide training so the boys will be able to identify their goals, recognize and develop their skills in giving leadership.

The Port McNicoll Venturers will be providing an instruction in camp craft skills for the Scouts. It will be an enjoyable weekend for all!

On Nov. 22, at St. Margaret's Church, 2nd Midland Scout Group had a church parade officiated by Father Sommerville.

Gilles Brisson, David Durnall, Larry Radko, Steve Rothwell and Father Sommerville were invested into Boy Scouts of Canada.

Five of the eight top winners in the weekend Elmvale and District Lions Club Grey Cup draw are residents of Elmvale.

Winning $200 each were Michael Stone of Elmvale, and George Hutchinson of Barrie.

Wally Greenlaw, Jeff Evans, Peter Steele, Fred Reynolds, all of Elmvale, and Reg Clark of Orr Lake and Rene Bauchman of Barrie, were each the winners of a $50 prize.

The club made over $925, and gave away 700 prizes, club member John Heacock said.

Eileen McNicoll of Elmvale won $168.75 last Thursday in a 50-50 draw organized by students of the high school. The purpose of the draw was to finance the trip on the weekend of the boys' volleyball team to Mitchell, Ont., for the All-Ontario high school championships. The Elmvale boys were representing Georgian Bay.

And on Nov. 14, Margaret Belcourt of Elmvale was a winner in a draw held during the Our Lady of Lourdes CWL bazaar and tea.
