

Would have helped

Dock Lunch could have used the help of Dave Mink (right) in their Simcoe County Men's Intermediate Basketball League contest Tuesday, in Barrie. Dock lost their opportunity for a second season victory when they missed a shot in the final seconds and lost 51-49 to the Georgian Grizzlies. Mink, one of the club's top shooters, sprained an ankle in a game against Orillia Champlain Hotel last week.

Commodores maintain league-leading form

The Commodores continued their winning ways Tuesday with a 91-57 thumping of the Alliston Marauders in Simcoe County Mens' Intermediate Basketball League action.

In other SCMBL play Tuesday, Dock Lunch fell short with a 51-49 loss to host Georgian College Grizzlies. The Commodores' win, their fifth in seven outings, kept them in a first-place tie with the King City Stingers, Barrie Queen's Hotel and the Barrie Brookdale Stars.

Jeff Altwood and Bill Hartman each scored 18 points to lead the way for the Commodores. Ray Brien added 16.

Dock Lunch missed an opportunity to tie their game with four seconds to go. The loss was their sixth in seven games, holding them down in a last-place tie with Orillia Champlain Hotel.

The Dock squad had to make do without two of their leading shooters, Dave Mink and Kris Watson. Both players received injuries in a game against Champlain last week, Mink spraining an ankle and Watson suffering a shoulder injury.

Brent Hamelin led

Dock shooters Tuesday with 14 points.

The two local clubs will face each other at Midland Secondary School Wednesday at 7:15 p.m.
